FINAL DECISION

The parties have unanimously elected to submit their dispute to resolution under the "Voluntary" decisional procedure set out in subpart C of the Commission's reparations rules. This election constitutes a waiver of the opportunity for an oral hearing, a waiver of the right to a decision with accompanying findings of fact, and a waiver of the right to appeal this final decision. See CFTC rules 12.100 and 12.106.

Based on a review of the parties' evidentiary submissions, it has been concluded that Orville Feikema has failed to establish any violations by Michael Sabo and William Zaleski causing damages in excess of the amount that Feikema has recently received from the futures commission merchant pursuant to a settlement agreement. Accordingly, this matter is dismissed.

Dated February 15, 2006.
