OFFICE OF THE SECRETARIAT

Jean A. Webb, Secretary
Commodity Futures Trading Commission
Three Lafayette Centre
21st St. NW
Washington, D.C. 20581

Reference: Proposed amendments to the CBOT's maximum daily price fluctuation limits.

I believe that the launch of the new trading system for commodities should be delayed until the computer software can be programmed to handle daily price limits.
Otherwise, it will disrupt the grain trade and further reduce the price discovery value of the CBOT. It will also significantly increase the financial exposure of farmers, elevators and processors.

Sincerely,

Norma Meyer
