The Commodities Futures Trading Commission has indicated that it may stop publishing the COT (Commitment of Traders) report, pending input from the public by Aug. 2. Why?

Do I still live in America? Why must we be kept in the dark? So you can make a bigger mess without us knowing, I suspect -- I hate being that cynical, but it sure feels that way. Maybe you should take my Bloomberg away, and my Treasury quotes, turn off the lights, and have me GUESS what to pay?

Don't do it.
