U.S. DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

It is my opinion here that you make the same error as most people do in this country. You think/hope that you still live in a free country. This is a major error. We have not lived in a free country for a long time. We have prided ourselves on our media, information and entertainment, for a long time, not realizing that it is solely directed to the undermining of our values and blinding us to the fact that our media is the greatest brainwashing medium in history. And this brainwashing has not gone to make us better. Instead it has been directed at destroying us intellectually, morally and politically.

Hope? Not without God's direct intervention.
Ronald Knarr
