

John G. Gaine, MFA President

John G. Gaine has been president of Managed Funds Association (MFA) since 1997. MFA, headquartered in Washington, D.C., is the only U.S.-based membership organization that represents the interests of managed funds professionals internationally. MFA promotes a beneficial regulatory environment, improved public relations, growth of the managed funds industry, and increased member and investor knowledge. Prior to becoming MFA's president, from 1993 to 1997, Mr. Gaine was MFA's director of government relations and general counsel.

From 1981 to 1993, Mr. Gaine worked in private practice specializing in commodities and related areas, and, from 1977 to 1981, he acted as the General Counsel for the Commodity Futures Trading Commission. Mr. Gaine received his B.A. from the University of Notre Dame in 1964, and his LL.B. from Harvard University in 1967. He is admitted both to the Washington, D.C. bar and the New York bar.
