The amendments to Rule 403A01.E. Exercise Prices expand the strike price range for only the January and February Boston Logan International Airport (WBAN 14739) Option from 100 points to 350. The amendments are effective on Thursday, January 15, 2004.

The amendments are as follows, with the additions underlined.

OPTIONS ON CME DEGREE DAYS INDEX FUTURES

403A01.E. Exercise Prices

(Prior language is unchanged)

At the commencement of option trading in a contract month, the Exchange shall list put and call options at intervals of 50 index points in a range of 100 index points (150 points for December New York La Guardia Airport (WBAN 14732) and 350 index points for January and February Boston Logan International Airport (WBAN 14739)) above and below the previous day's settlement price of the underlying futures contract. Thereafter, when the settlement price in the underlying futures contract occurs at or passes through any exercise price, the Exchange shall list on the next trading day put and call options at the next higher (or lower) exercise price within a 100-point range above (or below) the settlement price.

Furthermore, for options on the contract month nearest to expiration, the Exchange shall list put and call options at intervals of 10 index points in a range of 100 index points above and below the previous day's settlement price of the underlying futures contract.

Thereafter, when a settlement price in the underlying futures contract occurs at or passes through any exercise price, the Exchange shall list on the next trading day put and call options at the next higher (or lower) exercise price within a 100-point range (150 points for December New York La Guardia Airport (WBAN 14732) and 350 index points for January and February Boston Logan International Airport (WBAN 14739)) above (or below) settlement price. New options may be listed for trading up to and including the termination of trading.

The Board may modify the provisions governing the establishment of exercise prices as it deems appropriate.
