Re: Tradition SEF, Inc. – FOIA Confidential Treatment Request

Dear Secretary:

By e-mail dated today, November 10, 2014, Tradition SEF, Inc. (the “Submitter”) voluntarily provided the information attached as Exhibit A (the “Confidential Information”) and attached hereto to the Commodity Futures Trading Commission (the “Commission”) and staff of the Division of Market Oversight in connection with a Swap Execution Facility (“SEF”) rule submission made pursuant to Commission Rule 40.6.

Pursuant to Commission Rule 145.9(d), the Submitter requests confidential treatment of the Confidential Information on the grounds that disclosure of the Confidential Information would reveal confidential commercial and financial information of the Submitter.

Pursuant to Commission Rule 145.9(d)(5) the Submitter requests that confidential treatment of the Confidential Information be maintained until further notice from the Submitter. The Submitter requests that the Commission notify it immediately after receiving any request under the Freedom of Information Act (“FOIA”) or any other court order, subpoena or summons for the Confidential Information. The Submitter specifically notes that it does not waive in any manner its rights under Section 8(f) of the Commodity Exchange Act to receive a copy of any subpoena or summons for the Confidential Information prior to the Commission’s disclosure of such information pursuant to such subpoena or summons. Finally, the Submitter requests that the Commission notify it in the event that the Commission intends to disclose the Confidential Information to Congress or any federal or state governmental agency or department.

Should you require additional information related to this submission, please contact the undersigned at 212-377-2337 or scot.halvorsen@tradition.com. Please reference Tradition SEF Submission No. 14-21 in any related correspondence.

Sincerely,
