Termination of Suspension of Trading Privileges

Since the trading privileges have been suspended for a year and the public interest requires no further suspension, the respondents' request for restoration is granted.

Mr. Theodore R. Finder, of Beekman & Bogue, of New York, New York, for respondents.

Decision by Thomas J. Flavin, Judicial Officer

ORDER REMOVING SUSPENSION OF TRADING PRIVILEGES

On July 14, 1955, an order was entered in this proceeding under the Commodity Exchange Act (7 U.S.C. Chapter 1) directing the contract markets to refuse all respondents, except Winn & Lovett Grocery Company, all trading privileges thereon "until further order of the Secretary of Agriculture." Such respondents, through counsel, have requested issuance of an order terminating the suspension of their trading privileges.

Since the trading privileges of the respondents have been suspended for a year, the public interest requires no further suspension and the respondents' request for restoration is granted.

Accordingly, all contract markets are hereby notified, as provided by the order of July 14, 1955, that they need no longer refuse trading privileges to the respondents.

A copy hereof shall be served by registered mail upon the respondents and upon all contract markets.
