v.

DWIGHT ANDREW ST. AMANT and
U.S. OPTIONS CORP.,

Respondents

CFTC Docket
No. 02-R035

DEFAULT ORDER AND REPARATION AWARD; ORDER DISMISSING COMPLAINT AS TO RESPONDENT ST. AMANT

Respondent U.S. Options Corp. never appeared in this proceeding and thereby is in default. By defaulting, U.S. Options Corp. has waived its rights to contest the allegations of the complaint, to take discovery, to examine complainant's testimony in an oral hearing, or to present evidence in its own behalf. Pursuant to CFTC Rule 12.32, the allegations of the complaint are deemed true as to the defaulting respondent.

Based on the allegations of the complaint as thus construed, it is concluded that U.S. Options Corp. committed fraud in the solicitation and trading of complainant's futures interest account, resulting in damages in the amount sought in the complaint, $4,927.00. The following Reparation Award reflects the amount of damages, reduced by the amount complainant has received in a settlement from respondent St. Amant.

Violations having been found, respondent U.S. Options Corp. is ORDERED to pay reparations to complainant Larry Boyer in the amount of $3,427.00, plus costs in the amount of $50.00 (complainant's filing fee).

The complaint is DISMISSED as to respondent St. Amant.

Dated: June 20, 2003
