CFTC Docket No. 15-R4

FINAL DECISION

The parties have elected the voluntary decisional procedure. Under the voluntary decisional procedure, the parties are principally responsible for developing the evidentiary record, the parties waive the opportunity for an oral hearing, waive the right to receive a written statement of the findings of fact upon which the Final Decision is based, and waive the right to appeal this final decision to the Commission and to the federal courts.

After carefully reviewing the evidentiary record,¹ it has been concluded that complainant has failed to establish by a preponderance of the evidence any violations proximately causing damages. Accordingly, the complaint in this matter is dismissed.

Dated October 7, 2015.

Philip V. McGuire,
Judgment Officer

¹ The evidentiary record consists of complainant's complaint (and attachments), addendum to the complaint, and reply to respondent's answer, and respondent's answer.
