CFTC Docket No. 98-R115

ORDER OF DISMISSAL

Complainant Richard Piar initiated this proceeding without benefit of counsel. After the answers were filed, and discovery initiated, complainant advised this forum and the respondents that "I have decided after much thought to drop my case due to the lack of time and knowledge of the legal proceedings. My inability to present the facts at hand with the legal aspect of representation. Due to financial hardships legal counsel (sic) is not an opinion for me at this time."

It is deemed complainant has abandoned his complaint and accordingly, this matter is DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE as to re-filing in this forum.
