ORDER OF DISMISSAL FOR CAUSE

Complainant' son and wife have notified my office that complainant has passed away, that they will be taking no steps to have a court of competent jurisdiction appoint an executor or representative for the complainant's estate, and that they otherwise do not intend to participate in this proceeding. Because this case cannot proceed without an appropriate representative to assert the estate's rights, to protect the estate's interests or to settle on behalf of the estate, this case is DISMISSED WITHOUT PREJUDICE.¹

Dated October 6, 1998.

Philip V. McGuire,
Judgement Officer

¹ This dismissal shall not abrogate the right of the estate to initiate a new complaint through an appropriate executor or representative appointed by a court of competent jurisdiction.
