

Michael Zuzolo, President
Risk Management Commodities Inc.
Lafayette, Indiana

Why can't Margins be lower for Commercials versus Funds/Speculators at the Exchanges? The possible definition of a Commercial could be changed or amended in some way so that they are identified as those entities who have Grain Merchandising Licenses within their respective states. Is this already a prerequisite of being classified a "Commercial" by the CFTC and Exchanges?

Thank you,