Subject: CME Facilitated Silver Smash

ZeroHedge.com just published an article on how the CME just raised Margin Rates on Silver, and only SILVER, by 30%. You can find that here:

<http://www.zerohedge.com/article/when-banks-dont-results-cme-just-changes-rules-full-revised-silver-margin-schedule>

MAKE NO MISTAKE: The Banking Cabal OWNS the CME and they will continue to rig the game to the bitter end. The CFTC should investigate WHO KNEW WHAT AND WHEN as the price of silver was "allowed" to rise substantially over the past few days and NO DOUBT those "in the know" about what the CME was about to do put some serious shorts down for the smash.

Here's a question for the CFTC...HOW MANY CONTRACTS DID JP MORGAN COVER IN THIS LATEST TAKE DOWN?!

Those of us on the SIDELINES with physical silver should not care.

It's about OUNCES now and not PRICES.

The battles continue!
