Dear Mr. Arya:

Please disregard my previous email to you. We are taking your complaint very seriously, and have referred it to the appropriate people within the SEC.

Please understand that the SEC conducts its investigations on a confidential basis and neither confirms nor denies the existence of an investigation unless we bring charges against someone involved. We do this to protect the integrity and effectiveness of our investigative process and to preserve the privacy of the individuals and entities involved. As a result, we will not be able to provide you with any future updates on the status of your complaint or of any pending SEC investigation.

Below is a flyer that describes our policy as it will apply to your complaint. Please contact me if you have other questions.

Sincerely,

INFORMATION ABOUT SEC INVESTIGATIONS

Each year, thousands of investors ask the Securities and Exchange Commission to investigate the activities of other investors, financial professionals, corporations, brokerage firms, investment companies, stock exchanges, and others. These complaints generally suggest some impropriety or misconduct and sometimes make a plea to the SEC for direct assistance in resolving a grievance.

The SEC has the authority to investigate whether violations of the federal securities laws have occurred, and we make every effort to evaluate promptly and thoroughly the information provided by investors. But we cannot investigate every investor complaint. While many investor complaints do lead to full investigations and, if appropriate, to enforcement actions, we we cannot guarantee that our review will lead to further investigation or that the SEC will take any legal action.

We also cannot provide you with updates on the status of your complaint or your request for an investigation. The SEC conducts investigations confidentially for two main reasons. First, we can conduct investigations more effectively if they are not announced publicly. For instance, important documents and evidence can be destroyed quickly if people hear of an investigation. Second, we keep our investigations confidential to protect the reputations of companies and individuals if we find no wrongdoing or decide we cannot bring a successful action against them. The SEC will not confirm or deny the existence of an investigation unless, and until, it becomes a matter of public record as the result of a court action or administrative proceeding.

When there is proof that someone has violated the securities laws, the sanctions may include financial penalties, orders to surrender profits, cease and desist orders, or an injunction by a court to prevent further violations. The SEC may also bar individuals from working for a securities firm, investment adviser, or investment company. We can also ask a federal court to bar individuals from being officers and directors of publicly held companies. In some situations, we may refer a case to the Department of Justice for possible criminal prosecution.

The SEC publishes news releases about its lawsuits and administrative actions, and the news media often report on them. You can read and download the SECs Enforcement Actions on our website at www.sec.gov/divisions/enforce/enforceactions.shtml. Dear Satish

We have already replied your emails several times to inform you that you are not eligible for payment. This is because your investment was transacted after 21 June 2007 (subsequently extended to 7 July 2007) which is one of the eligible criteria approved by the Court. Please note that we do not have any information on your latest findings and your communication with US SEC. We regret we are unable to assist you further.

swisscash old account re-activation regarding ..... Monday, 24 November, 2008 7:21 PM

From: "Attention !!!" <watchwonderworld@gmail.com>
To: horseredshamli@yahoo.co.in

Hi, Thanks for visiting my site and for making Guest Book entry.

There was some scrolling news cautioning that they have not received our data due to some technical problems and hence, asked us to send all of our data to some specified e-mail IDs of swisscash. Have you seen these scrolling news on swisscash site from time to time. Now also, they are asking us to send our attachments to swiss1948@mail.com if we already registered with it as per Phase III. Now, we are in Phase IV and PhaseV. It means that re-activation of old accounts was no more. Re-activation of old accounts was only in Phase III and it was completed on 25th September, 2008. Please note. If we want to continue with swisscash, the only way is to start afresh with a new account and new investement as a new member. If we want to recover our money we have lost it we have to start afresh, where we have lost it. No other go... Is it not? It is up to you to decide.

Have a Nice Time!!!

SEC Response - File HO::~00007975~::HO [ref:00D3JxQy.50037iUwO:ref]

From: "Help" <help@sec.gov> Saturday, 12 June, 2010 12:29 AM

To: "ramkaranmaurya@yahoo.co.in" <ramkaranmaurya@yahoo.co.in>

Dear Mr. Maurya:

Thank you for contacting the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. Upon further review of your complaint, I realize it falls outside of our jurisdiction.

The issue you raise -- your inability to receive funds from a FOREX account -- is not one over which the SEC has jurisdiction. As explained in greater detail on our website, www.sec.gov, the SEC administers and enforces the federal laws that govern the sale and trading of stocks, bonds, mutual funds, and other securities.

You may wish to report your concerns to the Commodity Futures Trading Commission (CFTC), which investigates and prosecutes fraud against CFTC-registered firms and their affiliates offering or selling foreign currency futures and options contracts. Contact information for the CFTC is as follows:

Commodity Futures Trading Commission
Three Lafayette Centre
1155 21st Street, NW
Washington DC 20581
CFTC Toll-Free Complaint Line: 866-366-2382
Online Complaint Info: www.cftc.gov/customerprotection/redressandreparations/index.htm.

The SEC's website also provides a general discussion of foreign currency trading, including a link to the CFTC's warning about foreign currency frauds. See www.sec.gov/answers/forcurr.htm.

I hope this information is helpful. Please contact the CFTC and not the SEC about this matter.

Sincerely,

Post-judgment interest may be awarded if you prevail.

☐ $125 Summary Decisional Procedure. If your claim is $30,000 or less, it can be heard by a judgment officer. You may present your case in written form, and if deemed necessary by the judgment officer, orally, in Washington, or by telephone under this procedure. The judgment officer will issue brief statements of factual findings and conclusions based on law which are appealable first to the Commission and from there to a U.S. Court of Appeals. Prejudgment and post-judgment interest may be awarded if you prevail.

☐ $250 Formal Decisional Procedure. If your claim is over $30,000, it can be assigned to an administrative law judge (ALJ) for a formal hearing. You may present your case in written form. If oral testimony is deemed necessary by the ALJ, you may be required to travel up to 300 miles to attend the hearing. The ALJ will issue findings of fact and conclusions of law which are appealable first to the Commission and from there to a U.S. Court of appeals. Prejudgment and post-judgment interest may be awarded if you prevail.
