HERBERT MOSKOWITZ, and ARI MOSKOWITZ. Complainants, v.

* CFTC Docket Nos. 13-R015

& 13·R020

Served electronically

RUSSELL EDWARD TANNER. Respondent.

ORDER OF DISMISSAL

Respondent Russell Edward Tanner filed for bankruptcy in the Northern District of Illinois Bankruptcy Court in 2017. On October 20, 2017, Respondent Tanner filed with this Office an Order of Discharge from the Bankruptcy Court dated September 20, 2017. By Order dated February 16, 2018, Complainants were ordered to show cause, no later than March 2, 2018, why this matter should not be dismissed pursuant to Commission Rule 12.24(a)(3). Complainants have not done SO.

&lt;sup>1</sup> This case was assigned to me on July 27, 2017. On April 9, 2018, I was appointed by the Commission as its Judgment Officer, though I had served that function since July 2017. See https://www.cftc.gov/LawRegulation/OpinionsAdjudicatoryOrders/index.htm (Appointment Order), appended as Appendix A to this Order of Dismissal. Pursuant to the Appointment Order, I have reviewed the prior actions I have undertaken in this case, and as all are mooted by the Respondent's bankruptcy filing, have determined that none require revision. I therefore ratify all prior actions undertaken by me in this case.

Accordingly, the complaints of Herbert Moskowitz and Ari Moskowitz against Russell Edward Tanner<sup>2</sup> are hereby DISMISSED WITHOUT PREJUDICE pursuant to Commission Rules 12.24(a)(3) (defining petitions for bankruptcy as "parallel proceedings") and 12.24(d)(2) (noting that proceedings "shall be ordered dismissed, without prejudice, as to any respondent who becomes the subject of a parallel proceeding described in paragraph . . . (a)(3) of this section" as long as notice of such is received before the issuance of an initial decision).<sup>3</sup>

Dated: April 20, 2018

Kavita Kumar Puri, Judgment Officer

&lt;sup>2</sup> By Initial Decision on Default, Judgment Officer McGuire found Co-Respondent Peter G. Catranis and his firm Accredited Investment Management Corporation to be in default after Catranis refused to participate in the scheduled oral hearing for this matter. Catranis appealed the Initial Decision, and the Commission summarily affirmed the decision finding Catranis in default. See Commission Order of Summary Affirmance, August 16, 2017.

&lt;sup>3</sup> Because this matter is dismissed pursuant to 17 C.F.R. § 12.24(d)(2), this Order constitutes a final order "which is not subject to appeal." 17 C.F.R. § 12.24(f).

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA Before the COMMODITY FUTURES TRADING COMMISSION

In re:	) RATIFICATION AN	ID
Pending Administrative Proceedings	) RECONSIDERATION	N
	ORDER

On November 29, 2017, the Solicitor General on behalf of the United States submitted a brief in Raymond J. Lucia and Raymond J. Lucia Companies, Inc. v. Securities and Exchange Commission (No. 17-130) in which the Solicitor General agreed with the petitioners that the U.S. Supreme Court should decide whether administrative law judges of the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") are Inferior Officers under the Appointments Clause, U.S. Const. art. II, § 2, cl. 2. The Solicitor General took the position that SEC administrative law judges are Inferior Officers for purposes of the Appointments Clause but recommended that the Supreme Court appoint an amicus curiae to defend the contrary judgment of the Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit.

The Commission employs no administrative law judges. The Commission does employ a Judgment Officer, but makes no determination about whether the Judgment Officer is akin to an SEC administrative law judge for purposes of the Appointments Clause. Nevertheless, the Commission—in its capacity as head of a department—hereby ratifies the agency's prior appointment of Judgment Officer Kavita Kumar Puri.

In addition, the Commission orders the Judgment Officer, in proceedings now pending before her, to undertake the following actions in each of those proceedings:

- Reconsider the record, including all substantive and procedural actions taken;
- Issue an order granting parties until April 25, 2018, to submit any new evidence the parties deem relevant to the Judgment Officer's reexamination of the record;
- Determine; based on such reconsideration, whether to ratify or revise in any respect all prior actions taken by the Judgment Officer in the proceeding; and
- By June 8, 2018, issue an order in each case stating that the Judgment Officer has completed the reconsideration ordered above and setting forth a determination regarding ratification.

The Commission hereby tolls the time periods in Part 12 of the Commission's Regulations until the Judgment Officer issues the order on ratification. The Judgment Officer is directed to notify the parties in the cases pending before them of this order.

In matters pending before the Commission in which the Judgment Officer has issued a decision, the Commission hereby remands such matters to the Judgment Officer. A list of matters is attached as Exhibit A to this Order. The Judgment Officer is ordered to undertake the following actions in each of those proceedings:

- Reconsider the record, including all substantive and procedural actions taken by the Judgment Officer;
- Issue an order granting parties until April 25, 2018, to submit any new evidence the parties deem relevant to the Judgment Officer's reexamination of the record;
- Determine, based on such reconsideration, whether to ratify or revise in any respect all prior actions taken by the Judgment Officer in the proceeding; and
- By June 8, 2018, issue an order in each case stating that the Judgment Officer has completed the reconsideration ordered above and setting forth the determination regarding ratification.

The Judgment Officer may, for good cause shown, modify these deadlines, including the date by which the Judgment Officer's order on ratification is to be issued.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

By the Commission (Chairman GlANCARLO and Commissioners QUINTENZ and BEHNAM).

Christopher Kirkpatrick
Secretary of the Commission
