Division of Market Oversight

September 13, 2013

Nick Weinreb
Head of EU Regulation
NYSE Euronext
11 Wall Street
New York, NY 10005

Dear Mr. Weinreb:

In correspondence dated August 21, 2013, NYSE Euronext (Euronext or Exchange) requested certification that the CAC40 Index mini futures contract and the AEX-Index mini futures contract meet the requirements of section 2(a)(1)C(ii) of the Commodity Exchange Act and thus may be offered or sold to persons in the U.S. Euronext requested the 15-day accelerated Commission review pursuant to Commission Regulation 30.13(m).

The Division of Market Oversight (Division) has determined that the subject contracts meet the requirements of the Commodity Exchange Act. The Division's review was based on the facts and circumstances represented by Euronext in its August 21, 2013 letters and the attachments to the letters. This letter serves as a notification to the Exchange that the 15-day review period passed as of the close of business on September 12, 2013, and that the subject contracts are deemed certified. The contracts may be offered and sold to U.S. persons. The Division reminds Euronext that the Exchange is responsible for notifying the Commission of any material changes to the facts and circumstances regarding the subject futures contracts and the underlying indexes.

Euronext also has requested that, upon issuance of the relief granted herein, it be permitted to make the CAC40 Index mini futures contract and the AEX-Index mini futures contract available for trading through direct access from the U.S. in accordance with the terms and conditions of the no-action letters dated December 17, 1991 and April 07, 2003, issued by Commission staff to Euronext. In this regard, Euronext has certified that it is in compliance with the terms and conditions of the December 17, 1991 and the April 07, 2003 letters. The Division has concluded that allowing Euronext to make the subject futures contracts available for trading pursuant to the December 17, 1991 and April 07, 2003 letters would not be contrary to the public interest. Accordingly, the Division hereby confirms that the relief granted to Euronext in the December 17, 1991 and April 07, 2003 letters extends to the Euronext Paris CAC40 Index and the Euronext Amsterdam AEX-Index mini futures contracts.

Sincerely,

Thomas Leahy
Associate Director
