UNITED STATES OF AMERICA Before the COMMODITY FUTURES TRADING COMMISSION

GARY L. CROSS, Complainant, CFTC Docket No. 03-R63 v. ALARON TRADING CORPORATION, and JOHN L. PERSON, III, Respondents. FINAL DECISION

The parties have elected the voluntary decisional procedure. As a result, the parties have waived the opportunity for an oral hearing, and the parties have waived certain rights, including the right to receive a written statement of the findings of fact upon which the final decision is based and the right to appeal this final decision to the Commission and to the federal courts. CFTC rules 12.100(b), 12.105, and 12.106(d). Under the voluntary decisional procedure, the final decision is limited to a "briefly stated conclusion." CFTC rule 12.106(b).

After carefully reviewing the parties' submissions, it is hereby concluded that Cross has failed to establish any violations causing damages by respondents. Accordingly, the complaint against Alaron Trading Corporation and John L. Person is DISMISSED.

SV.M.Din

Dated July 8, 200

Judgment Officer