CFTC Docket No. 11-R002

FINAL DECISION

The parties have elected the voluntary decisional procedure. Under the voluntary decisional procedure, the parties are principally responsible for developing the evidentiary record, the parties waive the opportunity for an oral hearing, and the parties waive certain rights, including the right to receive a written statement of the findings of fact upon which the Final Decision is based, and including the right to appeal this final decision to the Commission and to the federal courts.¹

After carefully reviewing the evidentiary record, it is hereby concluded that complainant has established that: Billy Gee, Incorporated violated Section 13(a) of the Commodity Exchange Act; that an agent of Billy Gee, Incorporated violated Section 4b(a) of the Commodity Exchange Act; that these violations resulted in damages to complainant totaling $20,441.60; and that Billy Gee, Incorporated is liable for the violations of its agent pursuant to Section 2(a)(1)(B) of the Act. Accordingly, Billy Gee, Incorporated is ordered to pay to Victoria Dunckley reparations of $20,441.60, plus post-judgment interest on that amount at 0.12% compounded annually from the date of this award to the date of payment, plus $50 in costs for the filing fee.

Dated September 14, 2011.

Philip V. McGuire,
Judgment Officer
