CFTC Docket No. 09-R025

FINAL DECISION

The parties have elected the voluntary decisional procedure. Under the voluntary decisional procedure, the parties are principally responsible for developing the evidentiary record, the parties waive the opportunity for an oral hearing, and the parties waive certain rights, including the right to receive a written statement of the findings of fact upon which the final decision is based and the right to appeal this final decision to the Commission and to the federal courts.

After carefully reviewing the evidentiary record, it has been concluded that respondents violated Section 4b(a) of the Commodity Exchange Act proximately causing $8,018.63 in damages. Accordingly, Lyndon Lydell Parrilla and Parman Financial are ordered to pay to Betty Juno and Steven Juno reparations of $8,018.63, plus post-judgment interest on that amount at 0.39% compounded annually from the date of this order to the date of payment, plus $50 in costs for the filing fee. Liability is joint and several.

Dated October 15, 2009.

Philip V. McGuire,
Judgment Officer
