CFTC Docket No. 09-R22

FINAL DECISION

The parties have elected the voluntary decisional procedure. Under the voluntary decisional procedure, the parties are principally responsible for developing the evidentiary record, the parties waive the opportunity for an oral hearing, and the parties waive certain rights, including the right to receive a written statement of the findings of fact upon which the Final Decision is based and the right to appeal this final decision to the Commission and to the federal courts.

After carefully reviewing the evidentiary record,¹ it is hereby concluded that complainant has established that David Eugene Unti churned complainant's account in violation of Sections 4b(a)(2)(A) and 4c(b) of the Commodity Exchange Act and CFTC rule 33.10(a), and that these violations caused $17,624 in damages.² This amount shall be reduced by the introducing broker's $3,500 payment in 2008 and the futures commission merchant's $6,000 payment in 2009, to $8,124. Accordingly, David Eugene Unti is ordered to pay to Steven Weil $8,124, plus post-judgment interest on that amount at 0.31% compounded annually from the date of this order to the date of payment, plus $50 for the cost of the filing fee.

Dated July 15, 2010.

Philip V. McGuire,
Judgment Officer

¹ The principal documents that were considered included the complaint (and exhibits), the answer, Unti's motion to amend the answer (and exhibit), the parties' responses to the June 1st and 23rd Orders, and Vision Financial Markets' and Lasalle Futures' responses to subpoenas. The June 23rd Order put the parties on notice that diminished weight would be given to submissions that were not served on the other side, not sworn, and/or not signed.

² This conclusion may not be deemed a finding of the Commission for purposes of Section 8a of the Commodity Exchange Act. CFTC rule 12.106(b)(3).
