Subject: THANKS FROM THE TOP AT JP MORGAN!

To my dear friends at the CFTC;

Thank you for staying on course and doing such a remarkable job in ignoring the barrage of front page corruption accusations, countless lawsuits and thousands of public comments alleging of our Silver market manipulation. By not imposing any specific position limits that would otherwise prevent us from rigging the market, you have enabled us a wonderfully lengthy time period to continue to make billions and billions of dollars off of the American public. Thank you for enabling this windfall. As you know, we have generously taken care of all other entities within the US Government who have so willingly cooperated with us, so please know that you will be handsomely rewarded for your continued support of our tactics. On behalf of all the partners and traders at JP Morgan, we thank you immensely for making the past few years our most profitable ever!

Most sincerely,

Jamie Diamond, Chairman

JP Morgan Chase

Ps. Bernie sends his regards.
