A complaint and notice of hearing has been signed by the Assistant Secretary of Agriculture, charging violation of the Commodity Exchange Act by:

(Chicago, Illinois)

The complaint charges that on five days during the period April 6 through May 25, 1971, Mark J. Gamber exceeded the speculative trading limits on soybean futures contracts established by the Commodity Exchange Commission. It further charges that in connection with his trading on three of such days, he attempted to conceal the excess contracts by falsifying his reports and records.

Such violation is established only when the Judicial Officer of the Department has made a determination that the evidence substantiates allegations in the complaint. Complaints are filed in the Office of the Hearing Clerk of the Department of Agriculture and are a matter of public record. Pending disposition by the Judicial Officer, it is the policy of the Commodity Exchange Authority not to comment or elaborate on charges contained in complaints or to discuss evidence on which they are based.
