(Administrative Hearing Under the Commodity Exchange Act)

A complaint and notice of hearing has been signed by the Assistant Secretary of Agriculture charging violation of the Commodity Exchange Act by:

Robert Haltmier

(New York, New York)

The complaint charges that during the period April-October 1972, Robert Haltmier, while an employee of a futures commission merchant, cheated a customer by making numerous unauthorized trades for the customer's account.

The issuance of a complaint under the Commodity Exchange Act does not constitute proof of violation of the law. Such violation is established only when there has been a determination that the evidence substantiates allegations in the complaint. A determination is considered as having been made when a decision of the Administrative Law Judge becomes final, or after appeal, a decision is made by the Judicial Officer of the Department. Complaints are filed in the Office of the Hearing Clerk of the Department of Agriculture and are a matter of public record. Pending disposition of a complaint, it is the policy of the CEA not to comment or elaborate on charges contained therein or to discuss evidence on which it is based.

A public hearing on the complaint will be held before the Administrative Law Judge in New York, New York, at a date and time to be specified at a later date.
