

Commodity Futures Trading Commission
CEA CASES

NAME: J. F. FREEMAN & CO., INC., JAY A. NOVAK, AND IRVING A. OLSHEVER

DOCKET NUMBER: 186

DATE: APRIL 19, 1972

DOCUMENT TYPE: ORDER GRANTING AMEDMENTS TO COMPLAINT

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

BEFORE THE SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE

In re J. F. Freeman & Co., Inc., Jay A. Novak, and Irving A. Olshever, Respondents

CEA Docket No. 186

Order Granting Amendments to Complaint

On April 19, 1972 complainant filed, pursuant to section 0.5(C) of the rules of practice (17 CFR 0.1 et seq.), a Motion to Amend Complaint, together with the amendments to the complaint. The complain was filed initially in this proceeding on September 28, 1971.

At the last session of the hearing in this proceeding on March 7, 1971, counsel for complainant moved orally for leave to amend (transcript pp. 1192 and 1194). The motion was granted (transcript p. 1201) and the hearing was recessed until May 11, 1972, to permit time for the filing of the amendments, and answers with the a Hearing Clerk (transcript pp. 1209 and 1213).

Accordingly, the further written motion filed on April 19, 1972, to amend the complaint is granted and the complaint is considered amended in accordance with and as specified in said motion.

Respondents will have 20 days after service of the motion and amendments to the complaint to file their answers.

[SEE SIGNATURE IN ORIGINAL]

John A. Campbell

Referee

April 19, 1972

LOAD-DATE: June 16, 2008

