NAME: UNITED STATES OF AMERICA V. CARGILL, INCORPORATED, AND CARGILL GRAIN COMPANY, LIMITED

DOCKET NUMBER: 58

DATE: MAY 3, 1954

DOCUMENT TYPE: STIPULATION

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

DISTRICT OF MINNESOTA

FOURTH DIVISION

No. 4849 Civil

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA Plaintiff, vs. CARGILL, INCORPORATED, and CARGILL, GRAIN COMPANY, LIMITED, Defendants.

STIPULATION

WHEREAS, the defendants maintain the truth of their answers herein and maintain that they have not violated, nor do they intend to violate, any law or any rule, regulation or order issued thereunder; and

WHEREAS, the defendants nevertheless desire to avoid every appearance of placing themselves in a position of antagonism to the United States Government:

IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED, by and between the parties hereto, through their respective attorneys, that final judgement may be entered in the form annexed hereto upon consent, without notice, without trial or adjudication of any issue of fact or law herein, without the taking of any testimony, and without any findings of fact, upon condition that neither this stipulation and consent nor the final judgement to be entered herein shall be or be considered as evidence, admission, or adjudication that the defendants or either of them has violated or is now violating or intends to violate any law or any rule, regulation, or order issued thereunder.

Dated, May 3, 1954.
