AGRICULTURE DECISIONS

BEFORE THE SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

(No. 4256)

In re CHARLES VOJTEK. CEA Docket No. 43. Decided May 3, 1955.

Termination of Suspension of Trading Privileges

Where respondent was denied trading privileges (7 Agric. Dec. 386 (7 A.D. 386)) but has since made full restitution, and it is deemed that the public interest requires no further suspension, respondent's request for restitution is granted.

Mr. Rodger R. Kaufmann, Administrator, Commodity Exchange Authority, for Commodity Exchange Authority. Mr. Charles Vojtek, of Westchester, Illinois, respondent, pro se.

Decision by Thomas J. Flavin, Judicial Officer

ORDER REMOVING SUSPENSION OF TRADING PRIVILEGES

On May 26, 1948, an order was entered in this proceeding under the Commodity Exchange Act (7 U.S.C. Chapter 1) directing contract markets to refuse the respondent all trading privileges thereon "until further order of the Secretary of Agriculture." The respondent has, in effect, requested the issuance of an order terminating the suspension of his trading privileges. The request states that the respondent has made full restitution. The Commodity Exchange Authority has filed an answer to the request stating, in effect, that it appears that the respondent has made restitution and that it believes that reinstatement of trading privileges is justified.

Since the respondent's trading privileges have been suspended for nearly seven years, the public interest requires no further suspension, and the respondent's request for restoration is granted.

Accordingly, all contract markets are hereby notified, as provided by the order of May 26, 1948, that they need no longer refuse trading privileges to Charles Vojtek.

A copy hereof shall be served by registered mail upon the respondent and upon all contract markets.
