Subject: expanding daily limits

To Whom it Concerns:

I am very much opposed to the raising of the daily to $3.00 per CWT.

It would seem to me that by doing this you will lession the liquidity. (which we don't need)

It will favor the large player. (which we don't need)

It will require everyone to have double the margin. (which we don't need)

I will make it even more difficult for us to convence our customers to Hedge.

These are just a few of the reasons why I/we are opposed to changing the rules.

Sincerely:
