

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
Before the
COMMODITY FUTURES TRADING COMMISSION

In the Matter of the Notice of ) the Chicago Rice and Cotton ) Exchange Requesting Vacation of ) Designation as a Contract Market ) in Rough Rice Futures Contracts )

ORDER

The Chicago Rice and Cotton Exchange ("CRCE") having submitted, pursuant to Section 7 of the Commodity Exchange Act ("Act"), 7 U.S.C. § 11, a notice requesting vacation of designation as a contract market in rough rice futures contracts, and the Commodity Futures Trading Commission having reviewed the notice and the complete record in this matter, and for the reasons set forth in the memorandum submitted to the Commission by its staff recommending vacation of designation of this contract market,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, under Section 7 of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 11, that the CRCE's designation as a contract market in rough rice futures contracts is vacated.

Issued in Washington, D.C., this 8th day of November, 1991.

By the Commission

_____
Jean A. Webb
Secretary of the Commission