RE: CME Rules 106.D.9. and 127
Submission No. 06-113

Dear Ms. Webb:

Chicago Mercantile Exchange Inc. ("CME" or "Exchange") hereby notifies the Commission that the Exchange has deleted CME Rules 106.D.9. and 127. Both of these rules referenced programs that are no longer available. The purpose of the programs was to facilitate the purchase of memberships.

The text of these rule changes is attached with the deleted language lined out.

The Exchange certifies that these rule changes neither violates nor are inconsistent with any provision of the Commodity Exchange Act or of the rules and regulations thereunder.

If you have any questions regarding this matter, please call me at (312) 648-5422.

Sincerely,

/S/ Stephen M. Szarmack
Director and Associate General Counsel

106.D. Futures Industry Transfers

A member or Non-Member Investor may temporarily transfer his membership to another member who shall be subject to all Exchange rules and regulations.

Transfers under this section shall be subject to the following terms and conditions:

[1-8 unchanged]

9. ~~Any amounts paid by a transferee into the previously existing Member Purchase Program between November 1, 1988 through March 28, 1991 may be applied by the transferee toward the purchase of a membership in the CME, IMM or IOM Division provided that the transferee has continuously held a membership pursuant to Rule 106.D. or 106.F. from April 1, 1991, up to the date of the purchase. If a transferee ceases to hold a membership pursuant to Rule 106.D. or 106.F. before purchasing a membership, the amounts paid into the Program shall be retained by the Exchange. [Reserved]~~

[The remainder of the rule is unchanged]

127. MEMBER RETENTION PROGRAM [RESERVED]

~~The Member Retention Program was terminated on February 2, 2000. Individuals who have funds on deposit with the Exchange that were accrued pursuant to the Member Retention Program may use such funds to purchase a CME, IMM or IOM membership.~~
