RE: Extension of the FEX Strip Option Expiration Fee Waiver Program
CME Submission No. 22-094

Dear Mr. Kirkpatrick:

Chicago Mercantile Exchange Inc. ("CME"), on behalf of its clearing house division ("CME Clearing"), hereby notifies the Commodity Futures Trading Commission ("CFTC" or "Commission") of plans to extend the FEX Strip Option Expiration Fee Waiver Program ("Program") through January 31, 2023. The extension of the Program will become effective on April 1, 2022. All other Program terms remain unchanged.

Exhibit 1 sets forth the terms of the Program. Modifications appear below, with additions underlined and deletions ~~overstruck~~.

CME reviewed the derivatives clearing organization ("DCO") core principles ("Core Principles") as set forth in the Commodity Exchange Act ("CEA"). During the review, CME staff identified the following Core Principles as potentially being impacted: Financial Resources, Rule Enforcement, Recordkeeping, and Public Information.

The Program is a general fee waiver that applies to all market participants as further stated in Exhibit 1. CME will publish the Program on the CME website to ensure that the fees waived by the DCO are publicly available. The incentives in the Program have a non-material impact on the financial resources of CME. As such, the Program will not prevent CME from demonstrating that it has adequate financial, operational, and managerial resources to discharge its responsibilities as a DCO. Further, the incentives provided under the Program will not impact CME's ability to perform its monitoring or enforcement obligations under the CEA. Chapter 4 of the CME rules includes prohibitions against fraudulent, non-competitive, unfair or abusive practices. The Program will be subject to these rules. The Program is subject to CME's record retention policies which comply with the CEA.

CME certifies that the Program complies with the CEA and the regulations thereunder. There were no substantive opposing views to this Program.

CME certifies that this submission has been concurrently posted on CME's website at <http://www.cmegroup.com/market-regulation/rule-filings.html>.
