Re: CFTC Regulation 40.6(a) Certification. Notification Regarding Amendments to CME/CBOT/NYMEX COMEX Rules 403.A (“Clearing House Risk Committee”), 901.H (“General Requirements and Obligations”), 912 (“Approval”), 913 (“Withdrawal from Clearing Membership”) and CME Rule 8G913.A (Withdrawal from IRS Clearing Membership”).
CME Submission No. 18-363 (1 of 5)

Dear Mr. Kirkpatrick:

Pursuant to Commodity Futures Trading Commission (“CFTC” or “Commission”) Regulation 40.6(a), Chicago Mercantile Exchange Inc. (“CME”), The Board of Trade of the City of Chicago, Inc. (“CBOT”), New York Mercantile Exchange, Inc. (“NYMEX”) and Commodity Exchange, Inc. (“COMEX”) (each an “Exchange” and collectively the “Exchanges”) hereby notify the Commission that they are self-certifying amendments to CME/CBOT/NYMEX/COMEX Rules 403.A. (“Clearing House Risk Committee”), 901.H. (“General Requirements and Obligations”), 912. (“Approval”), 913. (“Withdrawal from Clearing Memberships”) and CME Rule 8G913.A. (“Withdrawal from IRS Clearing Membership”) (collectively, the “Rule Amendments”), effective on September 4, 2018.

The CME Group Board of Directors (“Board”) established the Clearing House Risk Committee (“CHRC”) and the Interest Rate Swap Risk Committee (“IRSRC”) as special committees that include market participant members. The CHRC and IRSRC were established to assist the Board—and later, the Clearing House Oversight Committee (“CHOC”)—in fulfilling their oversight responsibilities with respect to, inter alia, clearing member admission. The CHOC is a Board-level committee charged with providing oversight of the risk management activities and management of CME Clearing.

Until recently the governing documents for the aforementioned committees reserved the powers to approve Clearing Member applications, withdrawals and certain significant transactions to the CHRC and IRSRC. However, in an effort to avoid potential conflicts of interest which may arise with clearing member participants having approval authority in connection with Clearing Member applications, withdrawals and corporate changes, the governance documents of the respective committees were recently revised to reserve such powers to the CHOC, subject to input from the CHRC and IRSRC.

Certain of the Exchanges’ rules reflect the legacy allocation of the aforementioned approval powers to the CHRC and the IRSRC. Accordingly, the Rule Amendments are being implemented to align each of the Exchange’s rulebooks with the CHOC’s authority to approve clearing member applications, withdrawals and significant transactions. While the CHRC and IRSRC will retain their important advisory role on such matters they will no longer be providing final approval for them.

The Rule Amendments are set forth in Exhibit A.

The Exchanges reviewed the derivatives clearing organization core principles and the designated contract market core principles (collectively, the “Core Principles”) as set forth in the Commodity Exchange Act (“CEA” or “Act”) and identified that the Rule Amendments may have some bearing on the following Core Principles:

DCO Core Principle L – Public Information: The rulebook amendments will be added to the publicly available Exchange rulebooks available on the CME Group website. In addition, the Exchanges will release a notice to the marketplace regarding the amendments in advance of the effective date which will also be posted on the CME Group website.

DCO Core Principle O – Governance Fitness Standards: The Rule Amendments reflect the roles and responsibilities of the CHOC, CHRC and IRSRC as reflected in those committees’ governance documents. The fact that the CHRC and IRSRC will provide ex ante feedback to the CHOC on such matters ensure the views of participants will continue to be considered. The Rule Amendments further reflect the public interest by mitigating the potential for commercial conflicts of interest in decisions that ultimately concern market participant access to central clearing.

DCO Core Principle P – Conflicts of Interest: Clearing members compose both the CHRC and IRSRC. The Rule Amendments’ reallocation of approval authority for clearing member applications, withdrawals and significant transactions away from these committees and to the CHOC will mitigate potential conflicts of interest among Clearing Member representatives on the CHRC and IRSRC.

DCM Core Principle 7 – Availability of General Information: The Rule Amendments will be posted publicly on the CME Group website in satisfaction of this core principle.

Pursuant to Section 5c(c) of the Act and CFTC Regulation 40.6(a), the Exchanges certify that the Rule Amendments comply with the Act and regulations thereunder. There were no substantive opposing views to this proposal.

The Exchanges certify that this submission has been concurrently posted on the Exchanges’ website at <http://www.cmegroup.com/market-regulation/rule-filings.html>.

If you require any additional information regarding this submission, please contact the undersigned at 212.299.2200 or via email at CMEGSubmissionInquiry@cmegroup.com.

Sincerely,

/s/ Christopher Bowen
Managing Director and Chief Regulatory Counsel
