RE: Rule Certification: MODIFICATION_Nadex Amends Hours for 2019 New Year's Holiday and Announces the 2019 Exchange Holidays - Submission pursuant to Commission Regulation §40.6(a)

Dear Mr. Kirkpatrick:

On December 14, 2018, Nadex submitted to the Commodity Futures Trading Commission (the "Commission") a self-certification submission pursuant to Section 5c(c)(1) of the Commodity Exchange Act, as amended (the Act"), and §40.6(a) of the regulations promulgated by the Commission, which amended its listing hours for the 2019 New Year's Holiday. This submission was assigned identification number 1812-1416-5528-58. Nadex is making a modification to this submission to specifically state that no China 50 contracts will be offered on Wednesday, January 2, 2019 because the Exchange will be closed during the hours in which the China 50 would normally be listed. Additionally, no Weekly China 50 contracts will be offered for the week of December 31, 2018. This is consistent with Nadex's Holiday Product Schedule Guidelines, which is available on the Nadex website at www.nadex.com/holidays-hours, and which states "[i]n any week for which there are three or more holidays in the same underlying market resulting in the closure of that market and/or a holiday observed by Nadex, whether consecutive or not, no weekly contracts for products based on that underlying market will be listed for that week." As no China 50 contracts will be offered on Monday through Wednesday of that week, pursuant to the Guidelines, no Weekly China 50 contracts will be offered. The full amended schedule is attached in Exhibit A.

Should you have any questions regarding the above, please do not hesitate to contact me by telephone at (312) 884-0927 or by email at Jaime.walsh@nadex.com
