RE: Withdrawal of September 19, 2014 Self-Certification Regarding Amending the Duration of the Nadex 2-Hr Intraday Binary and Variable Payout Contracts

Dear Mr. Kirkpatrick:

On September 19, 2014, the North American Derivatives Exchange, Inc. ("Nadex") submitted to the Commodity Futures Trading Commission (the "Commission") a self-certification pursuant to Section 5c(c)(1) of the Commodity Exchange Act, as amended (the "Act"), and §40.6(a) of the regulations promulgated by the Commodity Futures Trading Commission (the "Commission") under the Act. This submission provided notice that Nadex intended to amend the duration of its 2-Hr Intraday Binary and Variable Payout Contracts to one hour. Nadex has subsequently decided it will not be changing the duration of its Intraday Contracts at this time and is requesting a withdrawal of submission number 1409-1917-1353-82. With this withdrawal, all 2-Hr Intraday Binary and Variable Payout Contracts will continue to be listed for a two hour period, and contracts set forth in footnote 1 of the submission will not gain an additional expiration time during the listing of the series of contracts. In short, nothing will change.

Nadex will re-file a self-certification submission if it decides to amend the listing duration of its Intraday Contracts at some point in the future.

Should you have any questions regarding the above, please do not hesitate to contact me by telephone at (312) 884-0953 or by email at Donald.horwitz@nadex.com.

Sincerely,

Donald L. Horwitz
