SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On June 10, 2024, the Commission published a notice of proposed rulemaking in the Federal Register proposing amendments to its rules concerning event contracts in certain excluded commodities. Specifically, the Commission proposed amendments to further specify types of event contracts that fall within the scope of section 5c(c)(5)(C) of the Commodity Exchange Act (“CEA”)¹ and are contrary to the public interest, such that they may not be listed for trading or accepted for clearing on or through a CFTC-registered entity. Among other things, the Commission proposed to further specify the types of event contracts that involve “gaming.”

Withdrawal of Proposed Rules

The Commission is withdrawing these proposed rules to reconsider them in light of various forms of State regulatory actions and litigation concerning the Commission’s exclusive jurisdiction over event contract derivatives listed on designated contract markets and the proper application of the swap and excluded commodity definitions under the Commodity Exchange Act, including issues related to the preemption of State gambling, wagering, and gaming laws in relation to sports-related event contracts laws and what activities constitute “gaming” under the CEA.² Thus, the Commission no longer intends to issue final rules with respect to the proposal. If the Commission decides to pursue future regulatory action in this area, it will do so by publishing new proposed rules or other issuance consistent with the requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act, as applicable.

The Office of Management and Budget has determined that this action is not a significant regulatory action as defined in Executive Order 12866, as amended, and therefore it was not subject to Executive Order 12866 review.
