ORDER INSTITUTING PROCEEDINGS PURSUANT TO SECTION 6(c) AND (d) OF THE COMMODITY EXCHANGE ACT, MAKING
FINDINGS, AND IMPOSING REMEDIAL SANCTIONS

I. INTRODUCTION

The Commodity Futures Trading Commission (“Commission”) has reason to believe that between May 2018 and June 2020 (“Relevant Period”), Rajeev Kansal (“Respondent” or “Kansal”) violated Section 4c(a)(5)(C) of the Commodity Exchange Act (“Act”), 7 U.S.C. §6c(a)(5)(C) (2018). Therefore, the Commission deems it appropriate and in the public interest that public administrative proceedings be, and hereby are, instituted to determine whether Kansal engaged in the violations set forth herein and to determine whether any order should be issued imposing remedial sanctions.

In anticipation of the institution of an administrative proceeding, Kansal has submitted an Offer of Settlement (“Offer”), which the Commission has determined to accept. Without admitting or denying any of the findings or conclusions herein, Kansal consents to the entry of this Order Instituting Proceedings Pursuant to Section 6(c) and (d) of the Commodity Exchange Act, Making Findings, and Imposing Remedial Sanctions (“Order”) and acknowledges service of this Order.¹

¹ Respondent consents to the use of the findings of fact and conclusions of law in this Order in this proceeding and in any other proceeding brought by the Commission or to which the Commission is a party or claimant, and agrees that they shall be taken as true and correct and be given preclusive effect therein, without further proof. Respondent does not consent, however, to the use of this Order, or the findings or conclusions herein, as the sole basis for any other proceeding brought by the Commission or to which the Commission is a party or claimant, other than: a proceeding in bankruptcy or receivership; or a proceeding to enforce the terms of this Order. Respondent does not consent to the use of the Offer or this Order, or the findings or conclusions in this Order, by any other party in any other proceeding.

II. FINDINGS

The Commission finds the following:

A. SUMMARY

During the Relevant Period, Kansal engaged in multiple instances of the disruptive trading practice known as “spoofing” (bidding or offering with the intent to cancel the bid or offer before execution) involving futures contracts, including cotton futures contracts between May 2018 and April 2019 and sugar futures contracts between May 2020 and June 2020, traded on ICE Futures, U.S. (“ICE”), a designated contract market. This conduct violated Section 4c(a)(5)(C) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 6c(a)(5)(C) (2018).

B. RESPONDENT

Rajeev Kansal is a resident of India. Kansal was a trader for a proprietary trading company during the Relevant Period. Kansal has never been registered with the Commission.

C. FACTS

During the Relevant Period, Kansal engaged in trading in commodity futures accounts on behalf of the proprietary trading firm and its wholly-owned subsidiary. During the Relevant Period, Kansal placed bids and offers for cotton futures contracts (between May 2018 and April 2019) and sugar futures contracts (between May 2020 and June 2020) with the intent to cancel the bids and offers before execution. Kansal’s spoofing activity involved placing an order that he wanted to get filled (“Genuine Order”) on one side of the market, typically consisting of an iceberg order with a small visible quantity; and on the opposite side of the market, placement of one or more larger orders that he intended to cancel (“Spoof Order”), often for more than five times the size of the visible quantity of the Genuine Order. Generally, Kansal quickly canceled the Spoof Order after placing it, and often after his Genuine Order was filled.

After being notified by the Commission’s Division of Enforcement of an investigation into his trading activity in cotton futures, Kansal engaged in similar trading activity in sugar futures contracts between May 2020 and June 2020.

During the Relevant Period, Kansal placed multiple Spoof Orders for cotton and sugar futures contracts on ICE.

III. LEGAL DISCUSSION

Section 4c(a)(5)(C) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 6c(a)(5)(C) (2018), makes it unlawful for “[a]ny person to engage in any trading, practice, or conduct on or subject to the rules of a registered entity that . . . is, is of the character of, or is commonly known to the trade as, ‘spoofing’ (bidding or offering with the intent to cancel the bid or offer before execution).” See, e.g., United States v. Coscia, 866 F.3d 782, 792-93 (7th Cir. 2017) (holding that because the Act clearly defines spoofing, it provides adequate notice of prohibited conduct), cert. denied, 138 S. Ct. 1989 (2018).

As described above, during the Relevant Period, Kansal placed bids and offers for futures contracts listed on ICE, a registered entity, with the intent to cancel those bids and offers before they were executed. By engaging in this conduct, Kansal violated Section 4c(a)(5)(C) of the Act. See CFTC v. Oystacher, 203 F. Supp. 3d 934, 942 (N.D. Ill. 2016) (denying motion for judgment on the pleadings, holding that allegations of placing “both bids and offers with the intent to cancel those bids or offers before execution” constitutes “trading behavior [that] falls within the Spoofing Statute’s defined prohibition”).

IV. FINDINGS OF VIOLATION

Based on the foregoing, the Commission finds that, during the Relevant Period, Kansal violated Section 4c(a)(5)(C) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 6c(a)(5)(C) (2018).

V. OFFER OF SETTLEMENT

Kansal has submitted the Offer in which he, without admitting or denying the findings and conclusions herein:

8. Any claims of Double Jeopardy based on the institution of this proceeding or the entry in this proceeding of any order imposing a civil monetary penalty or any other relief, including this Order;
- D. Stipulates that the record basis on which this Order is entered shall consist solely of the findings contained in this Order to which Kansal has consented in the Offer; and

 2. Orders Kansal to cease and desist from violating Section 4c(a)(5)(C) of the Act;

 5. Orders Kansal to comply with the conditions and undertakings consented to in the Offer and as set forth in Part VI of this Order.

Upon consideration, the Commission has determined to accept the Offer.

VI. ORDER

Accordingly, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

- B. Kansal shall pay a civil monetary penalty in the amount of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) ("CMP Obligation"), within thirty days of the date of the entry of this Order. Kansal shall also cooperate in any investigation, civil litigation, or administrative matter related to, or arising from, this action.
4. Partial Satisfaction: Kansal understands and agrees that any acceptance by the Commission of any partial payment of Kansal's CMP Obligation shall not be deemed a waiver of his obligation to make further payments pursuant to this Order, or a waiver of the Commission's right to seek to compel payment of any remaining balance.
5. Change of Address/Phone: Until such time as Kansal satisfies in full his CMP Obligation as set forth in this Order, Kansal shall provide written notice to the Commission by certified mail of any change to his telephone number and mailing address within ten calendar days of the change.
