

U.S. COMMODITY FUTURES TRADING COMMISSION

RENEWAL CHARTER OF THE TECHNOLOGY ADVISORY COMMITTEE

(1) Committee's Official Designation.

The advisory committee's official designation is the Technology Advisory Committee ("TAC").

(2) Authority.

The TAC is a discretionary advisory committee established by the authority of the U.S. Commodity Futures Trading Commission ("Commission") in accordance with the Federal Advisory Committee Act ("FACA"), as amended, 5 U.S.C. App. II.

(3) Objectives and Scope of Activities.

The TAC's objectives and scope of activities shall be to conduct public meetings, to submit reports and recommendations to the Commission, and to otherwise assist the Commission in identifying and understanding the impact and implications of technological innovation in the financial services, derivatives, and commodity markets. The TAC will provide advice on the application and utilization of new technologies in financial services, derivatives, and commodity markets, as well as by market professionals and market users. The TAC may further provide advice to the Commission on the appropriate level of investment in technology at the Commission to meet its surveillance and enforcement responsibilities, and inform the Commission's consideration of technology-related issues to support the Commission's mission of ensuring the integrity of the markets and achievement of other public interest objectives.

(4) Description of Duties.

In accordance with 5 U.S.C. App. 2 § 9(b) of the FACA, the duties of the TAC shall be solely advisory. The TAC may, by simple majority vote, call for reports and/or recommendations by the TAC or TAC subcommittee(s), adopt reports and/or recommendations, and transmit reports and/or recommendations to the Commission. TAC reports and/or recommendations shall be developed in consultation with all members of the TAC and any transmission to the Commission shall include dissenting or minority views, if any. TAC subcommittee reports and/or recommendations shall be deliberated on by the TAC before transmission to the Commission. No determination of fact or policy shall be made by the TAC on behalf of the Commission. Determinations of actions to be taken and policy to be expressed with respect to the reports and/or recommendations of the TAC shall be made solely by the Commission.

(5) Agency or Official to Whom the Committee Reports.

The TAC shall submit its reports and recommendations to the Commission. The TAC will also have a "Sponsor," who may be the Chairman of the Commission, a Commissioner, or a designee of the Commission, and who will be responsible for ensuring that the advice and recommendations of the TAC are provided to the Commission.

- (6) Support.
The Commission shall provide necessary support services for the TAC.
- (7) Estimated Annual Operating Costs and Staff Years.
The estimated annual operating costs for supporting the TAC are approximately $. This cost estimate includes costs associated with meeting expenses as well as the cost of .60 of one full-time Commission employee needed to support the TAC on a continuing basis. TAC members will not be compensated by the Commission for their services and will not be reimbursed or receive per diem from the Commission for travel-related expenses to attend TAC meetings.
- (8) Designated Federal Officer.
The Commission shall appoint a full- or permanent part-time Commission employee to serve as the Designated Federal Officer (“DFO”) of the TAC and any established TAC subcommittees. The Commission may appoint additional full-time or permanent part-time Commission employees to serve as alternate DFOs (“ADFOs”) for the TAC and/or any established subcommittees. The DFO or ADFO shall prepare and approve all meeting agendas; approve or call all TAC or subcommittee meetings; attend all TAC and subcommittee meetings; adjourn any meeting when the DFO or ADFO determines adjournment to be in the public interest; chair meetings when directed to do so by the Sponsor; and assist in the preparation and certification of meeting minutes.
- (9) Estimated Number and Frequency of Meetings.
The TAC shall meet at such intervals as are necessary to carry out its functions. It is estimated that meetings of the TAC will occur at least annually; meetings of subcommittees of the full TAC may occur as frequently as needed.
- (10) Duration.
The TAC will continue until two years from the date of renewal, unless the Commission directs that the TAC terminate on an earlier date.
- (11) Termination.
The TAC shall terminate two years from the date of renewal, unless the charter is renewed prior to its expiration in accordance with Section 14(a)(2)(A) of the FACA.
- (12) Membership and Designation.
Members shall be appointed and removed by vote of the Commission. Members may be appointed or removed at any time. The Sponsor shall designate a member of the TAC or TAC subcommittee to serve as the Chair absent the objection of a majority of the Commission. The Sponsor may also designate another committee or subcommittee member to serve as a co-Chair absent the objection of the majority of the Commission.

Each member who is not a regular government employee shall serve on the TAC either as a special government employee (“SGE”) or as the representative of an organization or identifiable group of persons with interests affected by the work of the TAC. SGE members provide advice to the Commission on the basis of their expertise and best, independent judgment in a manner free from conflicts of interest. The Commission shall not appoint any federally registered lobbyist to serve as an SGE on the TAC.

Representative members serve on the TAC primarily to convey to the Commission and to the TAC the views and interests of the organizations and/or groups that they represent. The Commission may appoint individuals to serve as representative members. In addition, the Commission may authorize an organization that is affected by the work of the TAC, or whose members are affected by the work of the TAC, to serve as a member and designate an individual (with final approval by the Sponsor) to represent the organization and, where relevant, the organization's members. The member organization may also designate alternates with Sponsor approval.

Members will represent a wide range of perspectives and interests, and may include the viewpoint categories listed below. The members will be selected to represent a balance of viewpoints that are necessary to effectively address the issues to be considered by the TAC. Though the viewpoint categories and precise number of members in any category may vary over time, the Commission anticipates that the TAC will have no more than 40 members who may represent the following viewpoint categories: (i) Market Participants in the derivatives and commodities markets; (ii) Financial Technology Providers; (iii) Market Infrastructure Firms, like exchanges and clearinghouses; (iv) Other segments of the derivatives and commodities industries; (v) Regulatory Organizations, which may include Self-Regulatory Organizations; (vi) Academia; and (vii) Think Tanks and Public Interest Groups.

(13) Subcommittees.

The Commission may establish and dissolve TAC subcommittees. The number of members on any TAC subcommittee will not exceed the number of members serving on the TAC. Current TAC members may, with the Sponsor's approval, serve on any TAC subcommittee without Commission reappointment to a subcommittee. Other subcommittee members shall be appointed in the same manner as TAC members. Subcommittee members shall be removed in the same manner as TAC members. Any subcommittees shall report to the TAC and may not provide reports and/or recommendations directly to the Commission or to any Commission officer or employee. A TAC subcommittee may, by simple majority vote, adopt its reports and/or recommendations, and transmit reports and/or recommendations to the TAC. TAC subcommittee reports and/or recommendations shall be developed in consultation with all members of the TAC subcommittee and any transmission to the TAC shall include dissenting or minority views, if any. TAC subcommittees shall have no authority to make decisions on behalf of the TAC. No determination of fact or policy shall be made by any TAC subcommittee on behalf of the Commission.

(14) Recordkeeping.

Records of the TAC and any subcommittee are maintained in accordance with the General Records Schedule and other Commission records guidance. Records of open TAC meetings will be made available to the public on the Commission's website.

(15) Filing Date.

This charter has been filed with the Commission, the Senate Committee on Agriculture, Nutrition and Forestry, the House of Representatives Committee on Agriculture, Committee Management Secretariat of the U.S. General Services Administration, and the Library of Congress on September 12, 2022.

Christopher J. Kirkpatrick
Secretary of the Commission

Dated: September 12, 2022
Washington, D.C.