CFTC Docket No. 18-26

ORDER INSTITUTING PROCEEDINGS PURSUANT TO SECTION 6(c) AND (d) OF THE COMMODITY EXCHANGE ACT, MAKING
FINDINGS, AND IMPOSING REMEDIAL SANCTIONS

I. INTRODUCTION

The Commodity Futures Trading Commission (“Commission”) has reason to believe that on multiple occasions between May 2017 and October 2017 (the “Relevant Period”), The Lion’s Share FX, LLC (“TLSFX”) violated Sections 2(c)(2)(C)(iii)(I)(bb) and 4m(1) of the Commodity Exchange Act (“Act”), 7 U.S.C. §§ 2(c)(2)(C)(iii)(I)(bb), 6m(1) (2012), and Commission Regulation (“Regulation”) 5.3(a)(3)(i), 17 C.F.R. § 5.3(a)(3)(i) (2017), and Jordan Denham (“Denham”), Collin Hargis (“Hargis”), and Josh Pascoe (“Pascoe”) violated Sections 2(c)(2)(C)(iii)(I)(aa) and 4k(3) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. §§ 2(c)(2)(C)(iii)(I)(aa), 6k(3) (2012), and Regulation 5.3(a)(3)(ii). Therefore, the Commission deems it appropriate and in the public interest that public administrative proceedings be, and hereby are, instituted to determine whether TLSFX, Denham, Hargis, and Pascoe (together, “Respondents”) engaged in the violations set forth herein and to determine whether any order should be issued imposing remedial sanctions.

II. FINDINGS

In anticipation of the institution of an administrative proceeding, Respondents have submitted an Offer of Settlement, which the Commission has determined to accept. Without admitting or denying any of the findings or conclusions herein, Respondents consent to the entry of this Order Instituting Proceedings Pursuant to Section 6(c) and (d) of the Commodity Exchange Act, Making Findings, and Imposing Remedial Sanctions (“Order”) and acknowledge service of this Order.¹

¹ Respondents consent to the use of the findings of fact and conclusions of law in this Order in this proceeding and in any other proceeding brought by the Commission or to which the Commission is a party or claimant, and agree that they shall be taken as true and correct and be given preclusive effect therein, without further proof. Respondents do not consent, however, to the use of this Order, or the findings or conclusions herein, as the sole basis for any other proceeding brought by the Commission or to which the Commission is a party or claimant, other

The Commission finds the following:

A. Summary

Throughout the Relevant Period, TLSFX acted as a commodity trading advisor (“CTA”), without being registered with the Commission as such, by exercising discretionary trading authority, or obtaining a written power of attorney to exercise discretionary trading authority, over the forex trading accounts of U.S. customers who were not eligible contract participants (“ECPs”). Throughout the relevant period, Denham, Hargis, and Pascoe acted as officers, employees, or agents of TLSFX in a capacity that involved the solicitation of clients’ discretionary accounts or supervising other persons so engaged, without being registered with the Commission as associated persons (“APs”) of a CTA as required.

B. Respondents

The Lion’s Share FX is a company organized and operated pursuant to the laws of the State of Michigan. TLSFX operated mainly through its internet website www.tlsforex.com and various social media accounts. TLSFX has never been registered with the Commission in any capacity.

Jordan Denham is an individual residing in Dearborn Heights, Michigan. Denham is a co-founder of TLSFX and primarily responsible for the firm’s marketing and finance. Denham has never been registered with the Commission in any capacity.

Collin Hargis is an individual who resides in Muncie, Indiana. Hargis is a co-founder of TLSFX and primarily responsible for generating forex trading signals for TLSFX members. Hargis has never been registered with the Commission in any capacity.

Josh Pascoe is an individual who resides in Adrian, Michigan. Pascoe is a co-founder of TLSFX and primarily responsible for the firm’s operations and finance. Pascoe has never been registered with the Commission in any capacity.

C. Facts

Throughout the relevant period, TLSFX exercised discretionary trading authority and/or obtained written discretionary trading authority over retail customers’ forex accounts through an autotrading program.

Beginning on or about May 2017, TLSFX offered to trade customers’ retail forex accounts through their “Autotrader” program in which TLSFX “Offer[s] Members The Ability [to] Take Advantage Of Our Hands-Free Autotrader Where Members Sync There [sic] Trading Account To An Account We Trade & It Executes Orders For Them Automatically.” TLSFX instructed non-ECP retail customers to open a retail forex account at a retail foreign exchange dealer, fund the account, and then link their account to an account controlled by TLSFX. Thereafter, trades placed in TLSFX “master account” would be automatically duplicated in the non-ECP customer’s retail forex account. Customers paid a monthly membership fee, between $85 and $100, to have access to TLSFX’s Autotrader program.

At no time during the Relevant Period were any Respondents registered with the Commission in any capacity or eligible for an exemption from the registration requirement.

III. LEGAL DISCUSSION

Section 1a(12)(A)(i) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 1a(12)(A)(i) (2012), defines a CTA as any person who, for compensation or profit, engages in the business of advising others, either directly or through publications, writings, or electronic media, as to the value of or advisability of trading in, among other things, forex. Pursuant to Section 1a(38) of the Act “the term ‘person’ imports the plural or singular, and includes individuals, associates, partnerships, corporations, and trusts.” Section 4m(1) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 6m(1) (2012), requires a person who is acting as a CTA and makes use of the mails or any means or instrumentality of interstate commerce in connection with the person’s business as a CTA to register with the Commission unless an exemption from registration applies. TLSFX was not exempt from registration as a CTA under any provision of the Act or Commission Regulations.

During the Relevant Period, TLSFX acted as a CTA by making use of the mails or any means of interstate commerce by engaging, for compensation or profit, in the business of advising clients as to the value or advisability of trading in off-exchange forex transactions. By failing to register as a CTA, TLSFX violated Section 4m(1) of the Act.

Regulation 5.1(e)(1) defines a CTA, for the purposes of Part 5 of the Regulations, as “any person who exercises discretionary trading authority or obtains written authorization to exercise discretionary trading authority over any account for or on behalf of any person that is not an eligible contract participant as defined in section 1a(18) of the Act, in connection with retail forex transactions.” 17 C.F.R. § 5.1(e)(1) (2017).

During the Relevant Period, TLSFX exercised discretionary trading authority, or obtained or solicited written authorization to exercise discretionary trading authority, over accounts of customers. TLSFX’s solicitation did not limit or restrict customers to be eligible contract participants, as defined in Section 1a(18)(A)(xi) of the Act. As such, TLSFX was required to register as a CTA pursuant to Regulation 5.3(a)(3)(i).

Pursuant to Regulations 5.1(e)(2) and 5.3(a)(3)(ii) any natural person associated with a CTA as a partner, officer, employee, consultant, or agent (or any natural person occupying a similar status or performing similar functions) in any capacity which involves (i) the solicitation of a client’s or prospective client’s discretionary account, or (ii) the supervision of any person or person so engaged, must register with the Commission as an AP of a CTA. Pursuant to Section 4k(3) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 6k(3) (2012), it shall be unlawful for any person to be associated with a CTA as a partner, officer, employee, consultant or agent (or any person occupying a similar status or performing similar functions), in any capacity which involves (i) the solicitation of a client's or prospective client's discretionary account or (ii) the supervision of any person or person so engaged, unless such person is registered with the Commission as an AP of such CTA.

During the Relevant Period, Denham, Hargis, and Pascoe were associated with TLSFX as partners, officers, employees, consultants, or agents in capacities which involved (i) the solicitation of a client's or prospective client's discretionary account, or (ii) the supervision of any person or person so engaged. As such Denham, Hargis, and Pascoe were each required to register with the Commission as an AP of a CTA. By failing to register with the Commission as an AP of a CTA, Denham, Hargis, and Pascoe each violated Section 4k(3) of the Act and Regulation 5.3(a)(3)(ii).

IV. FINDINGS OF VIOLATIONS

Based on the foregoing, the Commission finds that, during the Relevant Period, TLSFX violated Sections 2(c)(2)(C)(iii)(I)(bb) and 4m(1) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. §§ 2(c)(2)(C)(iii)(I)(bb), 6m(1) (2012), and Regulation 5.3(a)(3)(i), 17 C.F.R. § 5.3(a)(3)(i) (2017), and Denham, Hargis, and Pascoe violated Sections 2(c)(2)(C)(iii)(I)(aa) and 4k(3) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. §§ 2(c)(2)(C)(iii)(I)(aa), 6k(3) (2012), and Regulation 5.3(a)(3)(ii).

Respondents have submitted the Offer in which they, without admitting or denying the findings and conclusions herein:

- A. Acknowledge service of this Order;
- B. Admit the jurisdiction of the Commission with respect to all matters set forth in this Order and for any action or proceeding brought or authorized by the Commission based on violation of or enforcement of this Order;

 6. Orders Respondents and their successors and assigns to comply with the conditions and undertakings consented to in the Offer and as set forth in Part VI of this Order.

Upon consideration, the Commission has determined to accept the Offer.
