Case No. 2:18-cv-892

and

DENISE GUNDERSON RUST, an individual, JOSHUA DANIEL RUST, an individual, ALEESHA RUST FRANKLIN, an individual, R LEGACY RACING INC, a Utah corporation, R LEGACY ENTERTAINMENT LLC, a Utah limited liability company, and R LEGACY INVESTMENTS LLC, a Utah limited liability company.

Relief Defendants.

Plaintiffs Commodity Futures Trading Commission (“CFTC” or “Commission”) and the State of Utah Division of Securities, through Attorney General Sean D. Reyes (“State of Utah”) have filed a Complaint for Permanent Injunction and Other Relief and moved, pursuant to Section 6c(a) of the Commodity Exchange Act (“Act”), 7 U.S.C. § 13a-1(a) (2012) and Section 61-1-20(2) of the Utah Uniform Securities Act (“Securities Act”) and in accordance with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure (“Fed. R. Civ. P.”) 65, for an ex parte statutory restraining order freezing assets, allowing inspection of records, and appointing a Temporary Receiver. The Court has considered the pleadings, declarations, exhibits, and memorandum filed in support of the CFTC and the State of Utah’s motion, and finds that:

1. This Court has jurisdiction over the parties and over the subject matter of this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331 (2012) (federal question jurisdiction) and 28 U.S.C. § 1345 (2012) (district courts have original jurisdiction over civil actions commenced by the United States or by any agency expressly authorized to sue by Act of Congress), as well as 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a) (supplemental jurisdiction over claims under Utah law). 7 U.S.C. § 13a-1 (2012), authorizes the CFTC to seek injunctive relief against any person whenever it shall appear that such person has engaged, is engaging, or is about to engage in any act or practice that violates any provision of the Act or any rule, regulation, or order promulgated thereunder. Section 61-1-20(2) authorizes the State of Utah to bring an action to enjoin acts or practices that violate the Securities Act and seek injunctive and other relief upon a proper showing.

2. Venue lies properly within this District pursuant to 7 U.S.C. § 13a-1(e) (2012).
3. The CFTC and the State of Utah have made a proper prima facie showing that since at least 2008 and continuing to the present (“Relevant Period”), Defendants Gaylen D. Rust (“Rust”) and his company Rust Rare Coin, Inc. (“RRC”) (collectively, “Defendants”) have engaged, are engaging, or are about to engage in a scheme to defraud investors in connection with a pooled investment that purported to enter into contracts of sale for silver, a commodity in interstate commerce (the “Silver Pool”). As part of this fraudulent scheme, Defendants made material misrepresentations and fraudulent omissions to existing and prospective investors, including that Defendants would use funds contributed by investors to purchase and trade physical silver; that the silver held in the pool would be stored at Brink’s Incorporated (“Brink’s”) storage facilities in either Salt Lake City, Utah or Los Angeles, California; that Defendants had advance information regarding the movement of market prices for silver and would trade the silver held in their pool, selling silver immediately before a price decline and buying back a larger quantity of silver with the proceeds of that sale after prices had fallen; and that Defendants’ trading generated consistent returns for investors in the Silver Pool of at least twenty to twenty-five percent or more. Rather than use funds contributed by investors to the Silver Pool to buy and trade silver, Defendants misappropriated these funds and used them to make payments to other investors, transfer money to other companies owned by Rust, and pay personal expenses.

4. Therefore, there is good cause to believe that Defendants have engaged in, are engaging in, or are about to engage in a scheme to defraud investors in violation of Section 6(c) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 9(1) (2012), Regulation 180.1(a)(1)-(3), 17 C.F.R. § 180.1(a)(1)-(3) (2018) and Sections 61-1-1(2)-(3) of the Securities Act. Defendants also have engaged in, are engaging in, or are about to engage in the offer and sale of securities in Utah that are not registered under the Securities Act, in violation of Section 61-1-7 of the Securities Act. In addition, Defendant Rust has engaged in, is engaging in, or is about to engage in the offering and selling securities without a license in violation of Section 61-1-3 of the Securities Act, and 61-1-7; and Defendant RRC has engaged in, is engaging in, or is about to engage in the employment of an unlicensed agent in violation of Section 61-1-3 of the Securities Act.
5. There is also good cause to believe that Relief Defendants Denise Gunderson Rust (“Denise Rust”), Joshua Daniel Rust (“Joshua Rust”), Aleesha Rust Franklin (“Aleesha Franklin”), R. Legacy Entertainment, LLC (“R. Legacy Entertainment”), R. Legacy Racing Inc. (“R. Legacy Racing”), and R. Legacy Investments LLC (“R. Legacy Investments”) (collectively “Relief Defendants”) have received, are receiving, or are about to receive funds, assets or other property as a result of Defendants’ violative acts and practices and have been unjustifiably enriched thereby. The Relief Defendants do not have any legitimate interest or entitlement to these funds, assets or other property (“assets”) received as a result of Defendants’ violative conduct.
6. There is also good cause to believe that immediate and irreparable damage to the Court’s ability to grant effective final relief for investors in the Silver Pool in the form of monetary redress will occur from the withdrawal, transfer, removal, dissipation, or other disposition of assets, and/or the destruction, alteration, or disposition of books and records and other documents (“records”) by Defendants and Relief Defendants, unless Defendants and Relief Defendants are immediately restrained and enjoined by Order of the Court.

7. Therefore, there is good cause for the Court to freeze assets owned, controlled, managed, or held by Defendants and Relief Defendants, or in which they have any beneficial interest.
8. There is also good cause for the Court to prohibit Defendants and Relief Defendants from destroying, altering, or disposing of records, and/or denying representatives of the CFTC or the State of Utah access to inspect records, when and as requested, to ensure that CFTC and State of Utah representatives have immediate and complete access to those records.
9. There is also good cause for the appointment of a Temporary Receiver to take control of all assets owned, controlled, managed, or held by Defendants and Relief Defendants or in which they have any beneficial interest (“Defendants’ Assets” and “Relief Defendants’ Assets”), so that the Temporary Receiver may preserve assets, investigate and determine customer claims, determine unlawful proceeds retained by Defendants and Relief Defendants and amounts due to customers as a result of Defendants’ alleged violations, and distribute funds to customers harmed by Defendants’ alleged misconduct under the Court’s supervision.
10. There is also good cause to require an accounting by Defendants and Relief Defendants to the Temporary Receiver to determine the location and disposition of customer funds and ill-gotten gains.

11. There is also good cause to order repatriation of funds, assets or other property controlled by Defendants so that such assets can be controlled by the Temporary Receiver and to assure payment of restitution and disgorgement as authorized by the Court.
12. In summary, this is a proper case for granting a restraining order ex parte freezing assets, allowing inspection of records, and appointing a temporary receiver because the CFTC and the State of Utah are likely to succeed on the merits of their claims against Defendants. Moreover, there is reasonable likelihood that Defendant(s) may transfer or dissipate assets or destroy or alter records. Therefore, the Court orders the following.

DEFINITIONS

For purposes of this Order, the following definitions apply:

13. The term “assets” encompasses any legal or equitable interest in, right to, or claim to, any real or personal property, whether individually or jointly, directly or indirectly controlled, and wherever located, including but not limited to: chattels, goods, instruments, equipment, fixtures, general intangibles, effects, leaseholds mail or other deliveries, inventory, checks, notes, accounts (including, but not limited to, bank accounts and accounts at other financial institutions), credits, receivables, lines of credit, contracts (including spot, futures, options, or swaps contracts), insurance policies, and all funds, wherever located, whether in the United States or outside the United States.
14. The term “record” encompasses the terms “document” and “electronically stored information” as those terms are used in Fed. R. Civ. P. 34(a), and includes, but are not limited to, all writings, graphs, charts, photographs, sound recordings, images, and other data or other data compilations—stored in any medium from which information can be obtained or translated, if necessary, into reasonable usable form. The term “record” also refers to each and every such item in Defendants’ and Relief Defendants’ actual or constructive possession, including but not limited to: (i) all such items within the custody or control of any agents, employers, employees, or partners of the Defendants and Relief Defendants; and (ii) all items which Defendants and Relief Defendants have a legal or equitable right to obtain from another person. A draft or non-identical copy is a separate item within the meaning of the term. Records also include the file and folder tabs associated with each original and copy.

15. “Defendants” refers to Rust and RRC.

16. “Relief Defendants” refers to Denise Rust, Joshua Rust, Aleesha Franklin, R. Legacy Entertainment, R. Legacy Racing, and R. Legacy Investments.

RELIEF GRANTED

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that:

I. Asset Freeze Order Prohibiting the Withdrawal, Transfer, Removal, Dissipation, and Disposal of Assets

17. Defendants and Relief Defendants are immediately restrained and enjoined, except as otherwise ordered by this Court, from directly or indirectly withdrawing, transferring, removing, dissipating, or otherwise disposing of any assets, wherever located, including Defendants’ and Relief Defendants’ assets held outside the United States, except as provided otherwise in Sections IV, V, and VI of this Order, or as otherwise ordered by the Court; and except that each Relief Defendant shall have an allowance not to exceed $5,000.00 for ordinary and reasonable living expenses. Any additional expenditures in excess of $5,000.00 shall require prior approval by the Temporary Receiver. ;

19. The assets affected by this Order shall include existing assets as well as assets acquired after the effective date of this Order.

II. Maintenance of and Access to All Records That Relate to the Business Activities and Business and Personal Finances

20. Defendants and Relief Defendants are restrained from directly or indirectly destroying, altering, or disposing of, in any manner, any records that relate or refer to the business activities or business or personal finances of any Defendant or Relief Defendant.

21. Representatives of the CFTC and the State of Utah shall be immediately allowed to inspect the records that relate or refer to business activities and business and personal finances of Defendants and Relief Defendants, including, but not limited to, both hard-copy documents and electronically stored information, wherever they may be situated and whether they are in the possession of Defendants, Relief Defendants, or others. To ensure preservation and facilitate meaningful inspection and review of records, Defendants and Relief Defendants shall allow representatives of the CFTC and the State of Utah to make copies of any records, and if on-site copying of records is not practicable, representatives may make such copies off-site. The CFTC and the State of Utah shall promptly return the original records after any such off-site copying.

22. To further facilitate meaningful inspection and review, Defendants and Relief Defendants shall, absent a valid assertion of their rights against self-incrimination under the Fifth Amendment, promptly provide CFTC and State of Utah staff with:

- a. the location of all records relating or referring to the business activities and business and personal finances of Defendants and business activities and business finances of Relief Defendants; and
- b. all identification numbers and other identifying information for websites, cloud storage services, email and smartphone accounts, and all accounts at any bank, financial institution, or brokerage firm (including any introducing broker or futures commission merchant) owned, controlled or operated by Defendants; and all identification numbers and other identifying information for websites, cloud storage services, email and smartphone accounts, and all accounts at any bank, financial institution, or brokerage firm (including any introducing broker or futures commission merchant) owned, controlled or operated by Relief Defendants related to Relief Defendants' business activity, or to which Defendants and Relief Defendants have access; and

- c. all passwords to, and the location, make and model of, all computers and/or mobile electronic devices owned and/or used by Defendants in connection with their business activities and business and personal finances, or Relief Defendants in connection with their business activities and business finances.

23. When inspecting records that are subject to this Order, including those contained on computers and/or other electronic devices, the CFTC and the State of Utah should undertake reasonable measures to prevent review of the Defendants' or Relief Defendants' privileged communications and/or other nonbusiness, nonfinancial materials by the CFTC's and the State of Utah's attorneys and other staff who are part of the litigation team in this matter. Moreover, Defendants and Relief Defendants (or their counsel) shall promptly contact counsel for the CFTC or the State of Utah to assert any claims of privilege (or other legal objections) relating to the contents of any records that are subject to this Order and promptly cooperate with counsel for the CFTC or the State of Utah to develop reasonable protocols to isolate and prevent disclosure of claimed privileged and/or other nonbusiness, nonfinancial materials to the CFTC's or the State of Utah's attorneys and other staff who are part of the litigation team in this matter.

However, nothing herein shall excuse Defendants or Relief Defendants from full and immediate compliance with this Court's Order permitting the CFTC and the State of Utah to inspect the records which relate to Defendants' or Relief Defendants or Relief Defendants' business activities and their business and personal finances.

III. Notice to Financial Institutions and Others that Hold or Control Assets or Records of Defendants and Relief Defendants

24. To ensure the effectiveness of the asset freeze and pending further Order of this Court, any financial or brokerage institution, business entity, or person that receives actual notice of this Order and holds, controls, or maintains custody of any assets of Defendants or Relief Defendants shall not, in active concert or participation with Defendants or Relief Defendants, permit Defendants or Relief Defendants or other persons to withdraw, transfer, remove, dissipate, or otherwise dispose of any of Defendants' or Relief Defendants' assets, except that each Relief Defendant shall be permitted to withdraw an amount not to exceed $5,000.00 for ordinary and reasonable living expenses, as provided in paragraph 17 of this Order, and except as directed by further order of the Court; and
25. Any financial or brokerage institution, business entity, or person that receives notice of this Order by personal service or otherwise shall not, in active concert or participation with any Defendants or Relief Defendants directly or indirectly destroy, alter, or dispose of, in any manner, any records relating to the business activities and business and personal finances of any Defendant or Relief Defendant.
26. Furthermore, any such financial or brokerage institution, business entity, or person that receives actual notice of this Order and holds, controls, or maintains custody of any records or assets, titled in the name of, held for the benefit of, or otherwise under the control of any Defendants or Relief Defendants, or has held, controlled, or maintained custody of any such assets, of any Defendants or Relief Defendants at any time since January 2008, shall not, in active concert or participation with Defendants or Relief Defendants, deny a request by the CFTC or the State of Utah to inspect all records pertaining to any assets owned, controlled, managed, or held by, on behalf of, or for the benefit of Defendants or Relief Defendants, including, but not limited to, originals or copies of account applications, account statements, signature cards, checks, drafts, deposit tickets, transfers to and from the accounts, all other debit and credit instruments or slips, currency transaction reports, 1099 forms, and safe deposit box logs. As an alternative to allowing inspection of records, a financial or brokerage institution, business entity or other person may provide copies of records requested by the CFTC or the State of Utah.

27. Furthermore, any such financial or brokerage institution, business entity, or person that receives actual notice of this Order shall:
 - a. Within ten business days of a request by the Temporary Receiver, or such longer period specified by the Temporary Receiver, provide the Temporary Receiver with copies of all records pertaining to any account or assets owned, controlled, managed, or held by, on behalf of, or for the benefit of Defendants or Relief Defendants, either individually or jointly, including, but not limited to, originals or copies of account applications, account statements, signature cards, checks, drafts, deposit tickets, transfers to and from the accounts, all other debit and credit instruments or slips, currency transaction reports, 1099 forms, and safe deposit box logs; and

- e. Information identifying the accounts, employees, properties, or other assets or obligations of the Receivership Defendants.

VII. Directive to Cooperate with Temporary Receiver

34. Absent a valid assertion by Defendants or Relief Defendants of their respective rights against self-incrimination under the Fifth Amendment, Defendants, Relief Defendants, and all other persons or entities served with a copy of this order shall cooperate fully with and assist the Receiver. This cooperation and assistance shall include, but not be limited to, providing any information to the Receiver that the Receiver deems necessary to exercising the authority granted under this Order, providing any password required to access any computer or electronically-stored information in any medium, and advising all persons who owe money to Defendants or Relief Defendants that all debts should be paid directly to the Receiver.

VIII. Stay on Actions Against the Receivership Defendants

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED THAT:

35. Except by leave of the Court, during the pendency of the receivership ordered herein, Defendants, Relief Defendants, and all other persons and entities shall be and hereby are stayed from taking any action to establish or enforce any claim, right, or interest for, against, on behalf of, in, or in the name of, the Receivership Defendants, the Temporary Receiver, assets of the Receivership Estate, or the Receiver's duly authorized agents acting in their capacities as such, including but not limited to, the following actions:

- f. Doing any act or thing to interfere with the Temporary Receiver taking control, possession, or management of the property subject to the receivership, or to in any way interfere with the Temporary Receiver or to harass or interfere with the duties of the Temporary Receiver, or to interfere in any manner with the exclusive jurisdiction of this Court over the property and assets of the Receivership Defendants, or their subsidiaries or affiliates.

Provided, however, that nothing in this section shall prohibit any federal or state law enforcement or regulatory authority from commencing or prosecuting an action against the Receivership Defendants.

IX. Compensation for Temporary Receiver and Personnel Hired by the Temporary Receiver

36. The Temporary Receiver and all personnel hired by the Temporary Receiver as herein authorized, including counsel to the Temporary Receiver, are entitled to reasonable compensation, to be paid solely from the assets of the Receivership estate, for the performance of duties pursuant to this Order and for the cost of actual out-of-pocket expenses incurred by them for those services authorized by this Order that when rendered were (1) reasonably likely to benefit the receivership estate or (2) necessary to the administration of the estate. The Temporary Receiver and all personnel hired by the Temporary Receiver shall not be compensated or reimbursed by, or otherwise entitled to, any funds from the Court, the CFTC, or the State of Utah. The Temporary Receiver shall file with the Court and serve on the parties periodic requests for the payment of such reasonable compensation, with the first such request filed no more than sixty (60) days after the date of this Order and subsequent requests filed quarterly thereafter.
