CFTC's Energy and Environmental Markets Advisory Committee to Meet June 3

Washington, D.C. — CFTC Commissioner Dan M. Berkovitz, the sponsor of the Energy and Environmental Markets Advisory Committee (EEMAC), today announced that the EEMAC will hold a public meeting on Thursday, June 3, 2021. The meeting will begin at 9:00 a.m. (EDT) and be held via videoconference in accordance with the agency's implementation of social distancing due to the COVID-19 (coronavirus) pandemic.

The EEMAC will examine how derivatives markets can facilitate the transition to a low-carbon economy, including the status of carbon reduction through cap-and-trade and other carbon trading market mechanisms. The EEMAC will also hear a staff presentation on recent events in the energy markets.

"Climate change poses significant risks to our financial markets," said Commissioner Berkovitz. "Derivative markets can help companies and other market participants manage these risks and move towards a low-carbon economy. I look forward to this EEMAC meeting, which will examine the current state of our domestic and international carbon markets and how derivatives can increase the stability and resilience of our financial system in the face of this threat."

Members of the public may watch a live video of the meeting on cftc.gov or listen to a live, audio-only feed using the toll or toll-free numbers provided below. Persons requiring special accommodations to listen to the meeting because of disabilities should notify Abigail Knauff, the EEMAC Secretary, at (202) 418-5123 or at aknauff@cftc.gov.
