ORDER OF SUMMARY AFFIRMANCE

This matter is before the Commission for consideration of Appellant Robert L. Copeland, Jr.'s appeal from the Initial Decision and Dismissal Order issued on December 21, 2020.

The issues raised in the appeal involve already-settled legal or factual questions. Thus, upon review of the briefs and the record as a whole, we conclude that the result reached in the initial decision was substantially correct and no important question of law or policy has been raised on appeal. We therefore summarily affirm. 17 C.F.R. § 12.406(b). Pursuant to Rule 12.406(b), neither the initial decision nor this order of summary affirmance shall serve as Commission precedent in future proceedings.

Accordingly, we SUMMARILY AFFIRM the December 21, 2020 Initial Decision and Dismissal Order.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

By the Commission (Chairman BEHNAM and Commissioners JOHNSON, GOLDSMITH ROMERO, MERSINGER, and PHAM).

Handwritten signature of Christopher J. Kirkpatrick in black ink.
