CONSENT ORDER OF PERMANENT INJUNCTION,
THE APPOINTMENT OF A RECEIVER, AND OTHER EQUITABLE RELIEF
AS TO DEFENDANTS THOMAS D. CHILCOTT AND LEONA WESTBROOK

On March 6, 2002, Plaintiff Commodity Futures Trading Commission ("the Commission") filed a complaint against Thomas D. Chilcott ("Chilcott"), Leona Westbrook ("Westbrook"), and Ted E. Whidden ("Whidden") (collectively "Defendants") seeking injunctive and other equitable relief, as well as the imposition of civil penalties, for violations of the Commodity Exchange Act, as amended ("Act"), 7 U.S.C. §§ 1 et seq. (1994), the Commission regulations promulgated thereunder ("Regulations"), 17 C.F.R. §§ 1 et seq. (2001), and the Consent Final Judgment and Order of Permanent Injunction and Equitable Relief of the United States District Court for the District of Colorado in Commodity Futures Trading Commission v. Chilcott Portfolio Mgmt, Inc., et. al., C.A. No. 81-F-999, Order No. 1981-9 (D. Colo. July 10, 1981) (the "1981 Order").

On March 7, 2002, this Court issued an ex parte statutory restraining order ("Statutory Restraining Order") that, among other things, froze the Defendants' assets, prohibited Defendants from destroying any books and records, and scheduled a hearing of the Commission's request for a preliminary injunction. On March 18, 2002, this Court issued a preliminary injunction prohibiting the Defendants from violating the Act, Regulations, and the 1981 Order as alleged in the Complaint. On March 19, 2002, the Court modified the Statutory Restraining Order.

On March 29, 2002, the Commission moved this Court to issue an order appointing a receiver for the Defendants and the operation of Trade Master of Southwest Florida (“Trade Master”), which Defendants Chilcott and Westbrook opposed. The Commission and Defendants Chilcott and Westbrook have subsequently consented and agreed to the terms and provisions set forth herein for the appointment of a receiver (“Receiver”). Defendant Whidden has not filed a response to the Commission’s motion for the appointment of a receiver.

I. CONSENTS AND AGREEMENTS

1. To effect settlement of the matters alleged in the Complaint in this action without a trial on the merits or any further judicial proceedings, Chilcott and Westbrook consent to the entry of this Consent Order of Permanent Injunction, the Appointment of a Receiver, and Other Equitable Relief (“Order”).

2. Chilcott and Westbrook admit that this Court has jurisdiction over them and the subject matter of this action pursuant to Section 6c of the Act, 7 U.S.C. §13a-1 (1994).

3. Chilcott and Westbrook admit that venue properly lies with this Court pursuant to Section 6c of the Act.

4. In addition, Chilcott and Westbrook waive: (a) all claims which they may possess under the Equal Access to Justice Act, 5 U.S.C. § 504 (1994) and 28 U.S.C. § 2412 (1994), as amended by Pub. L. No. 104-121, §§ 231-32, 110 Stat. 862-63, and Part 148 of the Commission's Regulations, 17 C.F.R. §§ 148.1 et seq., to seek costs, fees and other expenses relating to, or arising from, this action; (b) the entry of findings of fact and conclusions of law in this action as provided by Rule 52 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, except as provided below in Section II; (c) any claim of Double Jeopardy based upon the institution of this proceeding or the entry in this proceeding of any order imposing a civil monetary penalty or any other relief; and (d) all rights of appeal from this Order.

5. Chilcott and Westbrook agree that neither they nor any of their agents, servants, employees, contractors or attorneys shall take any action or make any public statement denying, directly or indirectly, any allegation in the Complaint or findings or conclusions in the Order or creating, or tending to create, the impression that the Complaint or this Order is without a factual basis; provided, however, that nothing in this provision shall affect Defendants' (a) testimonial obligations; or (b) right to take legal positions in other proceedings to which the Commission is not a party. Chilcott and Westbrook shall take all necessary steps to ensure that all of their agents, servants, employees, contractors and attorneys understand and comply with this agreement.

6. Chilcott and Westbrook agree that they have read this Order and agree to this Order voluntarily and that no promise or threat has been made by the Commission or any member, officer, agent or representative thereof, or by any other person, to induce consent to this Order, other than as set forth specifically herein.

7. Chilcott and Westbrook consent to the continued jurisdiction of this Court in order to implement and carry out the terms of all orders and decrees that may be entered herein, to entertain any suitable application or motion for additional relief within the jurisdiction of this Court, and to assure compliance with the Order.

8. The Court, being fully advised in these premises, finds that there is good cause for the entry of this Consent Order and that there is no just reason for delay. The Court therefore directs the entry of findings of fact and conclusions of law, a permanent injunction, the appointment of a receiver, and other equitable relief pursuant to § 6c of the Act, as set forth herein.

II. FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

THE COURT HEREBY MAKES THE FOLLOWING FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

1. This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this action and all parties hereto pursuant to Section 6c of the Act, which authorizes the Commission to seek injunctive relief against any person whenever it shall appear that such person has engaged, is engaging or is about to engage in any act or practice constituting a violation of any provision of the Act or any rule, regulation or order thereunder.

2. Venue properly lies with this Court pursuant to Section 6c of the Act.

3. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Chilcott and Westbrook, each of whom has acknowledged service of the Complaint and consented to the Court's jurisdiction over each of them.

4. The Commission and Chilcott and Westbrook have agreed to this Court's retention of continuing jurisdiction over each of them for the purpose of enforcing terms of this Order.

The Receiver shall have no authority to control or administer Chilcott's and Westbrook's monthly allowance. Each month Chilcott and Westbrook will disclose to the Commission, in the form of a written declaration, their earnings for that month and the amount of money (if any) withdrawn from the Suncoast accounts to make up any shortfall. Earnings in excess of $3,100.00 for any given month will be deposited into Chilcott's and Westbrook's personal accounts at Suncoast and Chilcott and Westbrook will so advise the Commission each month of any such deposits.
