Rule Chapter Setting Forth Contract Specifications for the Russell 1000 Index Futures Contract

* * * * *

CHAPTER 16
RUSSELL 1000 INDEX FUTURES CONTRACT SPECIFICATIONS

1601. Scope of Chapter

This chapter applies to trading in futures contracts on the Russell 1000 Index. The procedures for trading, clearing, settlement, and any other matters not specifically covered herein shall be governed by the generally applicable rules of the Exchange. The Russell 1000 Index futures contract was first listed for trading on the Exchange on February 4, 2005.

1602. Contract Specifications

(a) Multiplier. The contract multiplier for the Russell 1000 Index futures contract is $500.00. For example, a contract size of one Russell 1000 Index futures contract would be $325,000.00 if the price quotation of the Russell 1000 Index were 650 (650 x $500.00).

(b) Schedule. The Exchange may list for trading up to three near-term serial months and five months in the March quarterly cycle (March, June, September, December) for the Mini-Russell 2000 Index futures contract. The final settlement date for a Russell 1000 Index futures contract shall be on the third Friday of the expiring futures contract month.

The trading days for Russell 1000 Index futures contracts shall be the same trading days of the securities underlying the Russell 1000 Index.

The trading hours for the Russell 1000 Index futures contract are from 8:30 a.m. Chicago time to 3:15 p.m. Chicago time.

(c) Minimum Increments. The minimum fluctuation of the Russell 1000 Index futures contract is 0.05 of one index point, which is equal to $25.00 per contract. The minimum fluctuation for the legs of a calendar spread executed as simultaneous transactions is 0.01, which is equal to $5.00 per contract.

(d) Position Limits. A person may not own or control more than 5,000 contracts net long or net short.

For the purposes of this rule, the positions of all accounts directly or indirectly owned or controlled by a person or persons, and the positions of all accounts of a person or persons acting pursuant to an expressed or implied agreement or understanding shall be cumulated.

The foregoing position limit shall not apply to bona fide hedge positions meeting the requirements of Commission Regulation §1.3(z)(1) and the rules of the Exchange.

(e) Termination of Trading. Trading on the Russell 1000 Index futures contract terminates at the close of trading on the day before the third Friday of the expiring futures contract month.

(f) Contract Modifications. Specifications are fixed as of the first day of trading of a contract. If any U.S. government agency or body issues an order, ruling, directive or law that conflicts with the requirements of these rules, such order, ruling, directive or law shall be construed to take precedence and become part of these rules, and all open and new contracts shall be subject to such government orders.

(g) Execution Priorities. Pursuant to Rule 406(a)(i), the base allocation method of price-time priority shall apply to trading in Russell 1000 Index futures contracts. Pursuant to Rule 406(b)(iii), a DPM trade participation right priority shall overlay the price-time priority base allocation method.

(h) Crossing Two Original Orders. The eligible size for an original Order that may be entered for a cross trade with another original Order pursuant to Rule 407 is one Contract. The request for quote response period under Rule 407(a) for the request for quote required to be sent before the initiation of a cross trade under Rule 407 is five seconds. Following the request for quote response period, the Trading Privilege Holder or Authorized Trader, as applicable, must expose to the market for at least five seconds under Rule 407(b) at least one of the original Orders that it intends to cross.

(i) Price Limits and Trading Halts.

Pursuant to Rule 413, Russell 1000 Index futures contracts are not subject to price limits.

Trading in Russell 1000 Index futures contracts shall be halted whenever a market-wide trading halt commonly known as a circuit breaker is in effect on the New York Stock Exchange in response to extraordinary market conditions.

(j) Block Trades. Pursuant to Rule 415(a)(i), the minimum Block Trade quantity for the Russell 1000 Index futures contract is 50 contracts. If the Block Trade is executed as a spread or a combination, one leg must meet the minimum Block Trade quantity for the Russell 1000 Index futures contract and the other leg(s) must have a contract size that is reasonably related to the leg meeting the minimum Block Trade quantity. Pursuant to Rule 415(f), the seller is obligated to call the Help Desk without delay, but no later than ten minutes after a Block Trade is negotiated, to notify the Exchange of the terms of the trade, including information identifying the relevant Contract, contract month, price or premium, quantity, time of execution, counterparty Clearing Member for each Block Trade and, if applicable, the underlying commodity, whether the transaction involved a put or a call and the strike price and any other information that is required to be set forth in the prescribed Block Trade Reporting Form.

(k) No-Bust Range. Pursuant to Rule 416, the CFE error trade policy may only be invoked for a trade price that is greater than three index points, which is equal to $1,500.00, on either side of the market price of the applicable Russell 1000 Index futures contract. In accordance with Policy and Procedure III, the Help Desk will determine what the true market price for the relevant Contract was immediately before the potential error trade occurred. In making that determination, the Help Desk may consider all relevant factors, including the last trade price for such Contract, a better bid or offer price, a more recent price in a different contract month and the prices of related contracts trading in other markets.

(l) Pre-execution Discussions. Pursuant to Policy and Procedure IV, the time period a Trading Privilege Holder or Authorized Trader must wait after engaging in pre-execution discussions with the other side of an Order is five seconds after that Order has been entered into the CBOE System.

(m) Reportable Position. Pursuant to Commission Regulation §15.03 and Commission Regulation Part 17, the position level that is required to be reported to the Commission is any open position in Russell 1000 Index futures contracts at the close of trading on any trading day equal to or in excess of 200 contracts on either side of the market.

1603. Settlement

Settlement of the Russell 1000 Index futures contract will result in the delivery of a cash settlement amount on the business day immediately following the settlement date. The cash settlement amount on the final settlement date shall be the final mark to market amount against the final settlement price of the Russell 1000 Index futures contract multiplied by $500.00. The final settlement price of the Russell 1000 Index futures contract will be rounded to the nearest $.01.

Clearing Members holding open positions in Russell 1000 Index futures contracts at the termination of trading in that Contract shall make payment to or receive payment from the Clearing Corporation in accordance with normal variation and performance bond procedures based on the final settlement amount.

If the settlement value is not available or the normal settlement procedure cannot be utilized due to a trading disruption or other unusual circumstance, the settlement value will be determined in accordance with the Rules and By-Laws of the Clearing Corporation.

1604. DPM Provisions

(a) DPM Appointment. A Trading Privilege Holder will be appointed to act as a DPM for the Russell 1000 Index futures contract pursuant to Rule 515.

(b) DPM Participation Right. The DPM participation right percentage under Rule 406(b)(iii) for the Russell 1000 Index futures contract is 30%.
