Semiannual Regulatory Agenda
COMMODOITY FUTURES TRADING COMMISSION (CFTC)

COMMODOITY FUTURES TRADING COMMISSION

17 CFR Ch. I

Regulatory Flexibility Agenda

AGENCY: Commodity Futures Trading Commission.

ACTION: Semiannual regulatory agenda.

SUMMARY: The Commodity Futures Trading Commission, in accordance with the requirements of the Regulatory Flexibility Act, is publishing a semiannual agenda of significant rules that the Commission expects to propose or promulgate over the next year. The Commission welcomes comments from small entities and others on the agenda.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Eileen A. Donovan, Acting Secretary of the Commission, Commodity Futures Trading Commission, 1155 21st Street NW., Washington, DC 20581; (202) 418-5096, edonovan@cftc.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Regulatory Flexibility Act, (5 U.S.C. 601, et seq.) (RFA), sets forth a number of requirements for agency rulemaking. Among other things, the RFA requires that:

Semianually, each agency shall publish in the Federal Register a regulatory flexibility agenda that shall contain:

(1) A brief description of the subject area of any rule that the agency expects to propose or promulgate, which is likely to have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities;

(2) A summary of the nature of any such rule under consideration for each subject area listed in the agenda pursuant to paragraph (1), the objectives and legal basis for the issuance of the rule, and an approximate schedule for completing action on any rule for which the agency has issued a general notice of proposed rulemaking; and

(3) The name and telephone number of an agency official knowledgeable about the items listed in paragraph (1). 5 U.S.C. 602(a).

The Commission has prepared an agenda of significant rules that it presently expects may be considered during the course of the next year. These rules may have some impact on small entities. In this regard, section 602(d) of the RFA, 5 U.S.C. 602(d), provides: “Nothing in [section 602] precludes an agency from considering or acting on any matter not included in a regulatory flexibility agenda or requires an agency to consider or act on any matter listed in such agenda.”

The Commission’s spring 2007 regulatory flexibility agenda is set forth below.

Issued in Washington, DC on February 28, 2007, by the Commission.

Eileen A. Donovan, Acting Secretary of the Commission.

1 The Commission published its definition of small entity to be used in connection with rulemaking proceedings on April 30, 1982 (47 FR 18618). Pursuant to that definition, the Commission is not required to list many of the agenda items contained in this regulatory flexibility agenda. See 5 U.S.C. 602(a)(1). Moreover, the Commission has previously certified, pursuant to section 605 of the RFA, 5 U.S.C. 605, that certain items contained in this agenda will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities. Accordingly, the listing of a rule in this regulatory flexibility agenda should not, in any event, be taken as a determination that a rule, when proposed or promulgated, will in fact require a regulatory flexibility analysis. However, the Commission hopes that the publication of an agenda that includes significant rules, regardless of their potential impact on small entities, may serve the public generally by providing an early and meaningful opportunity to participate in and comment on the formulation of new or revised regulations. In addition to publishing the regulatory flexibility agenda, the Commission also makes available to the public, on a monthly basis, a calendar and, on a weekly basis, posts an advisory on its Web site (http://www.cftc.gov) that lists rules that the Commission is considering or will consider in the near future.

3350. INTERAGENCY PROPOSAL TO CONSIDER ALTERNATIVE FORMS OF PRIVACY NOTICES UNDER THE GRAMM–LEACH–BLILEY ACT

Priority: Substantive, Nonsignificant
Legal Authority: 7 USC 7b–2; 7 USC 12a(5); 15 USC 6801 et seq
CFR Citation: 17 CFR 160

Abstract: Subtitle A of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act (GLB Act), captioned Disclosure of Nonpublic Personal Information (15 U.S.C. 6801 et seq.), requires each financial institution to provide a notice of its privacy policies and practices to its consumer customers. In general, the privacy notices must describe a financial institution’s policies and practices with respect to disclosing nonpublic personal information about a consumer to both affiliated and nonaffiliated third parties, and provide a consumer a reasonable opportunity to direct the institution not to share nonpublic personal information about the consumer with nonaffiliated third parties. The GLB Act agencies, which include eight Federal regulators including the CFTC, have published substantially identical regulations to implement GLB title V, known collectively as the “privacy rule.” Many notices issued under the privacy rule were long and complex, and difficult to compare with each other.

The Financial Services Regulatory Relief Act of 2006 amended the GLB Act, requiring the agencies to propose a model form to consumers. This so-called “safe harbor” model form is set forth in the joint NPRM issued by the GLB Act agencies in March. The NPRM seeks comment on the content and form of the form, among other matters. The NPRM was developed jointly by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, the Federal Trade Commission, the National Credit Union Administration, the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, the Office of Thrift Supervision, the Securities and Exchange Commission and the CFTC. The comments will be considered by all the GLB Act agencies before adopting a final rule.

3353. Debt Securities Conforming Amendments

Priority: Substantive, Nonsignificant
Legal Authority: 7 USC 1 et seq, as amended by PL 106–554, 114 Stat 2763
CFR Citation: 17 CFR 41
Legal Deadline: None
Abstract: On July 13, 2006, the Commodity Futures Trading Commission (“CFTC”) and the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) issued joint final rules to permit the trading of futures contracts based on individual debt securities and indexes comprised of individual debt securities. The effective date for the joint rules is August 14, 2006. The present language of several CFTC rules is not fully consistent with the offer and trading of futures contracts based on debt securities. Therefore the CFTC is proposing to adopt several conforming amendments that clarify the applicability of the rules to futures contracts based on debt.
