COMMENT

Dear Sir or Madam,

I would like to say that the very late request by the CME to extend the deadline on this issue should be denied. There has been ample time to make comment. It seems to me that with their large staff and many years of experience they could respond by the deadline even if they start working on it today.

At least nineteen people have responded already in the time provided by the CFTC. I see no reason for an extension.

Sincerely,
Patrick Walls
