COMMODITY FUTURES TRADING COMMISSION

Privacy Act of 1974; Systems of Records; Biennial Publication

AGENCY: Commodity Futures Trading Commission.

ACTION: Publication of annual notice of the existence and character of each system of records that the Commodity Futures Trading Commission ("Commission") maintains that contains information about individuals.

SUMMARY: The purpose of this notice is to announce the existence and character of the systems of records of the Commodity Futures Trading
Commission as required by the Privacy
Act of 1974, Public Law 93-579, 5
U.S.C. 552a.

Pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 552a(f), the Commission, on August 8, 1975, promulgated rules relating to records maintained by the Commission concerning individuals (40 FR 41056).
The rules as amended (17 CFR part 146) address an individual's rights to know what information the Commission has in its files concerning the individual; to have access to those records; to petition the Commission to have inaccurate or incomplete records amended or corrected; and not to have personal information disseminated to unauthorized persons. The full text of the Commission's rules implementing the Privacy Act can be found in 17 CFR part 146.

Under 17 CFR 146.11(a), the Commission is required to publish biennially a notice of the existence and character of each system of records it maintains that contains information about individuals. This notice implements this requirement and, when read together with the Commission's rules, will provide individuals with the information that they need to exercise fully their rights under the Privacy Act.

The Location of Systems of Records

The Commission offices are in the following locations:

- Three Lafayette Centre, 1155 21st
Street, NW., Washington, DC 20581,
Telephone: (202) 418-5000;
- 300 Riverside Plaza, Suite 1600 North,
Chicago, Illinois 60606, Telephone:
(312) 353-5990;
- 4900 Main Street, Suite 721, Kansas
City, Missouri 64112, Telephone:
(816) 931-7600;

- One World Trade Center, Suite 3747,
New York, New York 10048,
Telephone: (212) 466-2061;
- Murdock Plaza, 10900 Wilshire Blvd,
Suite 400, Los Angeles, California 90024, Telephone: (310) 235-6783;
and
- 510 Grain Exchange Building,
Minneapolis, Minnesota 55415,
Telephone: (612) 370-3255.

Where a system of records is stored in multiple locations, the notice merely identifies the offices and refers to this introductory section for each address.
The Commission's headquarters office is in Washington, DC, and is referred to in the systems notice as the "principal office." The Commission maintains regional offices in Chicago and New York and smaller offices in Kansas City, Minneapolis and Los Angeles. For purposes of this notice, the regional offices and smaller offices are referred to collectively as the "regional offices."
"All CFTC offices" means the headquarters office, the regional offices and the smaller offices.

In many cases, records within a system are not available at each of the offices listed in the system notice. For example, case files are maintained in the office where the investigation is conducted, but certain information may be maintained in other offices as well.
It is the Commission's responsibility, unless otherwise specified in the system notice, to determine where the particular records being sought are located. However, if the individual seeking the records in fact knows the location, it would be helpful to the Commission if the requester would indicate that location.

Scope and Content of Systems of Records

The Privacy Act applies to personal information about individuals. Personal information subject to the provisions of the Privacy Act may sometimes be found in a system of records that might appear to relate solely to commercial matters. For example, the system of records concerning registration of the various categories of registrants (CFTC-20) contains primarily business information. However, a firm's application for registration contains a few items of personal information concerning key personnel. Because the capability exists through the National Futures Association's computer system to retrieve information from this system of records not only by use of the name of the firm but also by the use of the name of these individuals, this information is within the purview of the Privacy Act. See the definition of system of records in the Privacy Act, 5 U.S.C. 552(a)(5), and § 146.2(g) of the Commission's Privacy Act rules, 17 CFR 146.2(g).

Such a capability would generally not exist, however, in a Commission staff investigation of the activities of a firm unless an individual is registered as an FCM, IB, CTA or CPO. That is, if the investigation was opened under the name of the FCM, information would be retrievable only under that name. Accordingly, information about principals of a firm under investigation that might be developed during the investigation would generally not be retrievable by the name of the individual, and the provisions of the Privacy Act would not apply.

General Statement of Routine Uses

A principal purpose of the Privacy Act is to restrict the unauthorized dissemination of personal information concerning an individual. In this connection, the Privacy Act and the Commission's rules prohibit dissemination except for specific purposes. Individuals should refer to the full text of the Privacy Act, 5 U.S.C. 552a(b), and to the Commission's rules, 17 CFR part 146, for a complete list of authorized disclosures. Only those arising most frequently have been mentioned herein.

The Privacy Act and the Commission's rules specifically provide that disclosure may be made with the written consent of the individual to whom the record pertains. Disclosure may also be made to those officers and employees of the Commission who need the record in the performance of their duties. In addition, disclosures are authorized if they are made pursuant to the terms of the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 552.

The Privacy Act and the Commission's rules permit disclosure of individual records if it is for a "routine use," which is defined as a use of a record that is compatible with the purpose for which it was collected. Unless otherwise indicated, the following routine uses of Commission records are applicable to all CFTC systems. To avoid unnecessary repetition of these routine uses, where they are generally applicable, the system notice refers the reader to the "General Statement of Routine Uses." The notice for each system of records lists any specific routine uses that are applicable to that system.

1. The information may be used by the Commission in any administrative proceeding before the Commission, in any injunctive action authorized under the Commodity Exchange Act or in any other action or proceeding in which the Commission or its staff participates as a party or the Commission participates as amicus curiae.

2. The information may be given to the Justice Department, the Securities and Exchange Commission, the United States Postal Service, the Internal Revenue Service, the Department of Agriculture, the Office of Personnel Management, and to other Federal, state or local law enforcement or regulatory agencies for use in meeting responsibilities assigned to them under the law, or made available to any member of Congress who is acting in his capacity as a member of Congress.

3. The information may be given to any board of trade designated as a contract market by the Commission if the Commission has reason to believe this will assist the contract market in carrying out its responsibilities under the Commodity Exchange Act, 7 U.S.C. 1, et seq., and to any national securities exchange or national securities association registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission, to assist those organizations in carrying out their self-regulatory responsibilities under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C. 78a, et seq.

4. At the discretion of the Commission staff, the information may be given or shown to anyone during the course of a Commission investigation if the staff has reason to believe that the person to whom it is disclosed may have further information about the matters discussed therein, and those matters appear relevant to the subject of the investigation.

5. The information may be included in a public report issued by the Commission following an investigation, to the extent that this is authorized under section 8 of the Commodity Exchange Act, 7 U.S.C. 12. Section 8 authorizes publication of such reports but contains restrictions on the publication of certain types of sensitive business information developed during an investigation. In certain contexts, some of this information might be considered personal in nature.

6. The information may be disclosed to a Federal agency in response to its request in connection with the hiring or retention of an employee, the issuance of a security clearance, the reporting of an investigation of an employee, the letting of a contract or the issuance of a license, or a grant or other benefit by the requesting agency, to the extent that the information may be relevant to the requesting agency's decision on the matter.

7. The information may be disclosed to a prospective employer in response to its request in connection with the hiring or retention of an employee, to the extent that the information is believed to be relevant to the prospective employer's decision in the matter.

8. The information may be disclosed to any person, pursuant to Section 12(a) of the Commodity Exchange Act, 7 U.S.C. 16(a), when disclosure will further the policies of that Act or of other provisions of law. Section 12(a) authorizes the Commission to cooperate with various other government authorities or with "any person."

POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR STORING, RETRIEVING, ACCESSING, RETAINING AND DISPOSING OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM:STORAGE:

Records are stored on the mail servers in each CFTC location. Servers are backed up nightly to magnetic tape. In Washington, DC, the most recent two weeks of magnetic tape are kept in a locked box in the Computer Room and the prior two weeks are kept at an off-site storage facility. The entire four weeks of magnetic tape information is kept in unlocked boxes in a secured area in the Commission's offices in Chicago, New York and Los Angeles.

RETRIEVABILITY:

The information can be retrieved by assigned interoffice or Internet mail address.

SAFEGUARDS:

Network administrators have access to the email information. This access is generally limited to the "header" information described under "Categories of Records." In addition, the mailbox owner can grant access to objects in the mailbox to others. The tapes are kept in locked storage boxes in Washington, DC, and only network administrators and OIRM management have keys to the locked boxes. In the Chicago, New York and Los Angeles offices, tapes are kept in a secured area. Only designated OIRM personnel have access to these secured areas.

RETENTION AND DISPOSAL:

Records on magnetic tape are retained for four weeks, and then destroyed as the tape is written over with new information. Records are retained on the mail servers until the sender and receiver delete the information from the email system. Internet email information that is received by the postmaster due to an error in delivery is considered temporary and is destroyed after the problem is corrected. When an employee leaves the Commission, the employee's mailbox is deleted unless the employee or the employee's administrative officer requests that the mailbox be retained in order to recover work-related information.

CATEGORIES OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM:

Records on the websites and news groups visited, as identified by the Internet protocol address assigned to each computer, as well as information on the date and time of the website or news group access.

AUTHORITY FOR MAINTENANCE OF THE SYSTEM:

ROUTINE USES OF RECORDS MAINTAINED IN THE SYSTEM, INCLUDING CATEGORIES OF USERS AND THE PURPOSES OF SUCH USES:

The records are used by CFTC network administrators for maintenance of the firewall system that protects the CFTC from unauthorized access to its data. The network administrators may also use the information to evaluate the level of use of the agency's Internet browsing capability. See also the Commission's "General Statement of Routine Uses," Nos. 1, and 2. Records may also be disclosed as necessary to the agency's Internet service provider or agency contractor to the extent that the information is necessary for maintenance of the agency's Internet access.

Records are kept on the software maintained on the firewall gateway server in the headquarters computer room. In addition, a record of the Internet browsing done on each computer is maintained on that PC. The length of time of storage on the firewall gateway server is governed by available disk space on the server. At current levels of browsing usage, the information is stored on the server firewall for six months. Information on websites visited by each PC is also stored in the PC's history file or cache directory. The information is stored on the individual PC until the cache directory consumes 1% of total disk space. Oldest items are then removed until the directory is equal to or less than 1% of the total disk space. History file records are maintained until 100 URLs are entered. (URL stands for "Uniform Resource Locator" and is the address of the site visited, for example, <http://www.cftc.gov>.) The oldest URLs are deleted until the total URL count is equal to or less than 100 entries.

RETRIEVABILITY:

The information can be retrieved by Internet protocol address. The network administrators have access to information about the office location and individuals assigned to each computer, as identified by Internet protocol address.

SAFEGUARDS:

Access to the computer room is limited to OIRM employees. The Director of OIRM may grant the Commission's Internet service provider access to the Internet web browsing system information for maintenance purposes. However, the provider would not have access to the information that links Internet protocol addresses to particular computers, locations and individuals.
