Re: Rule Filings SR-OCC-2010-03 and SR-OCC-2010-09: Consent to Extension of Time

Dear Mr. Stawick:

The Options Clearing Corporation (“OCC”) submitted Rule Filings SR-OCC-2010-03 and SR-OCC-2010-09 by correspondence dated March 1, 2010 and June 7, 2010, respectively, for prior approval under Section 5c(c)(2) of the Commodity Exchange Act (the “CEA”). These filings pertain to the clearance and settlement of transactions in options and security futures on ETFS Palladium Shares and ETFS Platinum Shares, and Sprott Physical Gold Shares, respectively. Pursuant to Section 40.5(b) of the Commission’s regulations, the Commission initially had forty-five days to review each rule filing.

Pursuant to Section 40.5(c)(1) of the regulations, the Commission extended the review period for Rule Filings SR-OCC-2010-03 and SR-OCC-2010-09 for an additional forty-five days—the maximum period permitted under Section 5c(c)(2)(C) of the CEA and Section 40.5(c)(2) of the regulations absent consent of the submitting party.

After the unilateral forty-five day extensions discussed above, the Commission staff requested the extensions outlined below for OCC’s rule filings:

March 1, 2012	46 Days	OCC-2010-03/OCC-2010-09

On April 16, 2012, the Commission staff requested and OCC consented to an additional extension of both above-captioned rule filings through May 31, 2012.

As described above, Commission staff has requested extensions of the review period for the two above-captioned rule filings on 20 occasions. These extensions have resulted in delays in the listing and trading of the referenced products for two years.

We understand from Commission staff and staff at the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") that the extension requests are the result of ongoing discussions between Commission staff and SEC staff related to large trader data associated with the products. We urge the Commission and the SEC to resolve this open issue so the options exchanges seeking to trade the products are able to do so. In addition, we believe it is inappropriate to continue to delay the approval of the referenced rule filings since discussions between the CFTC and the SEC regarding large trader data can continue to progress while the products are trading.

It is our understanding from conversations with the staffs of both agencies that there have been recent discussions between the staffs with additional meetings scheduled and we believe that it is not unreasonable of us to anticipate that these discussions can be successfully concluded within the next 45 days. Accordingly, OCC hereby consents to an additional extension of the review period for Rule Filings SR-OCC-2010-03 and SR-OCC-2010-09 through May 31, 2012.
