Re: Revision to Schedule A Chapter 4 Regarding Position Limit Amounts

Dear Mr. Stawick:

OneChicago, LLC ("OneChicago") hereby submits a Revision to Schedule A Chapter 4 regarding Position Limit Amounts as set forth in OCX Rule 414. The attached schedule removes and replaces product rule certifications previously filed with the Commodity Futures Trading Commission ("Commission") with respect to those products eligible for increased position limits or position accountability.

The table below summarizes the differences between the existing and the revised schedule. The change will become effective upon filing.

"Schedule A to Chapter 4"

Previous Total	80
Removed Securities	16
Added Securities	7
Lowered Position Limits	1
Increased Position Limits	7
Remained consistent	56
New Total	71

On behalf of OneChicago, I hereby certify that the products identified in the table above to OneChicago Rule 905, as modified in this letter, comply with the conditions for trading set forth in Section 41.25 of the regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Commodity Exchange Act ("Act"), and complies with the Act and the regulations thereunder.

If you have any questions or concerns please contact Shahe Alexanian at 312-424-8522.

/s/ Donald L. Horwitz
Managing Director and
General Counsel
OneChicago, LLC

		*Generally, the position limits for single stock futures are no greater than 13,500 contracts net long or short during the last five trading days of an expiring contract month. The products listed here qualify for higher position/accountability limits. See, OCX Rule 414.
		 Position Accountability Rule 414(g):The Exchange has adopted this position accountability rule for security futures products where the average daily trading volume in the underlying security exceeds 20 million shares and there are more than 40 million shares of the underlying security outstanding. A Person owning or controlling more than a specified number of futures contracts net long or short in all contract months combined (as set forth in Schedule A to this Chapter 4, as may be amended from time to time) must provide, in a timely fashion, upon request by the Exchange, information regarding the nature of the position, trading strategy, and hedging information if applicable, and consent to halt increasing their positions when so ordered by the Exchange.
