RE: CBOT Chapter 12 (“Soybean Oil Futures”) and Chapter 13 (“Soybean Meal Futures”)
 Updated delivery differentials for soybean meal and soybean oil
 CBOT Submission No. 09-196

Dear Mr. Stawick:

The Board of Trade of the City of Chicago, Inc. (“CBOT” or “Exchange”) hereby notifies the Commodity Futures Trading Commission of its intention to update the Soybean Oil delivery differentials as outlined in Chapters 12 of the Rules and Regulations. The Soybean Meal differentials will not change from the previous year because the weekly average number of certificates outstanding did not exceed 150 certificates in all territories combined during the previous crop year as out lined in Rule 13106.(I).

Attached you will find the updated wording to reflect these changes. The text of the rule amendments is attached, with additions underlined and deletions overstruck. In addition to this, special executive reports S-5003 and S-5004 have been attached for your convenience. These changes will take effect with the January 2010 delivery month cycle.

If you require any additional information regarding this action, please do not hesitate to contact John D. Hill at 312-930-1852 or via e-mail at John.Hill@cmegroup.com; Dave Lehman at 312-930-1875 or via e-mail at David.Lehman@cmegroup.com; or contact me at 312-648-5422. Please reference our CBOT Submission No. 09-196 in any related correspondence.
