5. The products listed herein comply with SEF Core Principle 3, “Swaps Not Readily Susceptible to Manipulation” in that: (1) The interest rate swaps listed for trading contract terms will define the settlement details of each swap. (2) Interest rate swaps will be based on widely available, independent and observable benchmarks such as LIBOR, EURIBOR, which are published by the British Bankers Association or other market standard benchmarks that reflect the overall level of interest rates, rather than the interest rate paid by a specific company or corporate entity. (3) The markets for these swaps is sufficiently liquid to prevent them from being susceptible to manipulation. (4) The SEF’s predecessor brokers have experience in operating platforms and executing trades in these swaps. (5) The SEF will monitor trading in these swaps in conjunction with the SEF’s regulatory service provider. (6) The SEF has rules to prevent SEF participants from engaging in manipulative activity and possesses discretion to impose fines and disciplinary sanctions on its participants.
